No. 6894.—The following Enactment, passed at a meeting of the Federal Council held on the 29th June, 1925, is published for general information:

FEDERATED MALAY STATES.

ENACTMENT No. 14 OF 1925.

An Enactment to provide for the regulation and control of Electrical Installations and of the generation, supply and use of Electrical Energy.

E. S. HOSE,

[2nd August, 1925.]

President of the Federal Council.

It is hereby enacted by the Rulers of the Federated Malay States in Council as follows:

Short title,
commencement
and repeal.

1. (i) This Enactment may be cited as "The Electricity Enactment, 1925," and shall come into force on the date of the publication thereof in the Gazette.

(ii) Upon the coming into force of this Enactment the Enactments specified in the schedule together with all rules and notifications thereunder shall be repealed.

Interpretation.

2. In this Enactment and in any rules made thereunder the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them:

"Apparatus" means electrical apparatus and includes all apparatus, machines, consuming devices and fittings in which conductors are used or of which they form a part;

"Area of supply" means the area outside which a licensee is not authorized by his licence to supply energy;

"Authorized Person" means a person appointed by the licensee, the management or the owner of an installation, or by a contractor, for the time being, to a licensee or owner to carry out certain duties incidental to the generation, transformation, distribution, and use of energy provided that such person possesses the qualifications, if any, prescribed for persons performing such duties; or if no qualifications are prescribed is competent for the purpose for which he is employed, the burden of proof of competency being on the employer;

"Chairman" means the officer for the time being performing the duties of Chairman of the Electrical Board;

"Chief Electrical Engineer" means the officer for the time being performing the duties of Chief Electrical Engineer, Electrical Board, Federated Malay States;

"Chief Inspector," "Deputy Chief Inspector" and "Inspector" mean, respectively, the Chief Electrical Inspector, Deputy Chief Electrical Inspector and an Electrical Inspector appointed under section 3;

"Chief Secretary" means the Chief Secretary to Government, Federated Malay States;

"Conductor" means an electrical conductor arranged to be electrically connected to a system;

"Consumer" means a person who is supplied with energy or whose premises are for the time being connected for the purposes of a supply of energy with any system of public supply;

"Danger" means danger to health or to human life or limb from shock, burn or other injury resulting from the generation, transformation, distribution or use of energy and includes danger to property from fire resulting as aforesaid;

"Deputy Chief Electrical Engineer" means the officer for the time being performing the duties of Deputy to the Chief Electrical Engineer. He shall have and may exercise all powers vested by this Enactment or by any rules thereunder in the Chief Electrical Engineer;

"Dishonestly" has the meaning assigned thereto in the Penal Code;

"Electrical Board, Federated Malay States," hereinafter referred to as "The Board," means the body of persons appointed by notification in the Gazette for the supervision of all schemes for electric lighting and electric supply throughout the Federated Malay States;

"Electric supply line" means a wire or conductor or other means for conveying, transmitting or distributing energy, together with any casing, coating, covering, tube, pipe or insulator enclosing, surrounding or supporting the same or any part thereof, or any apparatus connected therewith for the purpose of conveying, transmitting or distributing energy;

"Energy" means electrical energy when generated, transmitted, supplied or used for any purpose except the transmission of a message;

3. (i) The Chief Secretary may by notification in the Gazette appoint an Electrical Board, consisting of a Chairman and so many other members as he may deem fit, for the control of electrical undertakings throughout the Federated Malay States and may appoint so many Electrical Inspectors and other officers as he may think expedient to inspect installations and electrical plant, apparatus and works and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed and may in like manner appoint officers to officiate as Chief Electrical Inspector and as Deputy Chief Inspector to supervise the methods and details of such inspection and of such duties as aforesaid and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

Appointment of Board and officers.

(ii) The carrying out of the said inspections and the performance of the said duties shall be under the administrative control of the Chairman.

(iii) The Chairman, the Chief Inspector and the Deputy Chief Inspector shall have and may exercise all powers vested by this Enactment or by any rules thereunder in an Inspector.

4. (i) Subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed by rule under section 37, no person shall

(a) use, work or operate or permit to be used, worked or operated any installation; or

(b) supply to or for the use of any other person energy from any installation required for use of installation;

terms, conditions and contents of

except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence expressly authorizing such use or supply, as the case may be.

(ii) Such licences may be granted by the Resident in consideration of such payments, if any, as he may think fit; provided that no licence shall be granted for any installation as a public installation until the Chief Inspector has certified in writing that the installation to be licensed has passed the prescribed tests and satisfies in all respects the requirements of this Enactment and the rules thereunder.

(iii) No licence shall be capable of being transferred unless the consent of the Resident to the transfer be evidenced upon the licence by writing under the hand of the Resident.

(iv) Licences shall be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by rule under section 37 and to such further conditions, if any, as may in each several case be imposed, in the exercise of his discretion, by the Resident; such last-mentioned conditions shall be set out in the licence.

(v) Licences may be for such periods as the Resident may in each several case approve; provided that no licence shall without the express approval of the Chief Secretary be for a period exceeding 21 years.

(vi) The period of duration of every licence shall be set out therein, and in every licence for a public installation there shall be set out

- (a) the area of supply;
- (b) the declared pressure and the variations permitted therefrom;
- (c) the maximum charges payable by consumers.

(vii) There shall be payable on the issue of licences such fees as may be prescribed.

Supply lines and other apparatus on State land.

5. (i) A licence may extend to authorizing the licensee to lay, place or carry on, under or over State land, to the extent and in the manner specified in the licence, such electric supply lines and to erect and maintain in or upon State land such posts and other apparatus as may in the opinion of the Resident be necessary or proper for the purposes of the licensed installation and such authority may be given or added to at any time during the currency of the licence by endorsement thereon under the hand of the Resident.

(ii) All apparatus placed in or upon State land which shall not be removed therefrom within six months, or such longer period as the Resident may permit, after the expiration or other determination of the licence under the authority whereof the same was so placed shall vest in and become the property of the Government.

Security: suspension of
and revocation
of licence.

6. (i) The Resident may in his discretion require that, before the issue of any licence, such security as he may specify shall be furnished for the due observance of the terms and conditions of the licence and of the provisions of this Enactment and the rules thereunder.

(ii) A licence may be at any time suspended or revoked by the Resident on breach of any of the conditions thereof or in default of payment of any moneys accrued due thereunder, or if the licensee ceases to work or operate the installation in respect of which the licence has been granted.

Restriction of use to specified
purposes.

7. A licensee who is by the conditions of his licence restricted to using or supplying energy for specified purposes only, shall not use or supply such energy for any purpose other than those so specified.

Agreement for sale of installation to Government on termination of
licence.

8. (i) It may be made a condition of the grant of any licence for an installation as a public installation that the licensee shall agree with the Government in writing that he will on the expiration or other determination of the licence sell to the Government on the terms (if any) set out in the agreement the installation to which the licence refers.

No. 14 OF 1925.

(ii) Where such agreement as aforesaid has been entered into and a licence has been issued in pursuance thereof, then on the expiration or other determination of such licence the licensee shall, except as may be expressly otherwise provided by the terms of the said agreement, sell to the Government the installation to which the licence refers upon terms of payment by the Government to the licensee of the then value of all lands, buildings, works, materials and plant of the licensee suitable to and used by him for the purposes of the installation, such value to be in case of difference determined by reference thereof to two arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party, and the arbitration shall have effect as though the same were in pursuance of a submission within the meaning of "The Arbitration Enactment, 1912." Provided that the value of such lands, buildings, works, materials and plant shall be deemed to be their fair market value at the time of the purchase, due regard being had to the nature and the condition of such buildings, works, materials and plant and to the state of repair thereof and to the circumstance that they are in such a position as to be ready for immediate working and to the suitability of the same to the purposes of the installation, but without any addition in respect of compulsory purchase or of good will or of any profits which may or might have been or be made from the installation or of any similar considerations. Any other questions which may arise in relation to such purchase may be determined by the Supreme Court and such Court may fix the date from which such purchase is to take effect, and from and after the date so fixed, or such other date as may be agreed upon between the parties, all lands, buildings, works, materials and plant so purchased as aforesaid shall vest in the Government freed from any debts or obligations of the licensee.

9. (i) For the necessary purposes of installing, maintaining and repairing any system of distribution of energy owned or operated by or on behalf of the Government the Chairman or any person authorized by him in that behalf may at all reasonable times enter upon any lands, whether the same be or be not owned or occupied by any person, for the purpose of carrying out and may carry out all necessary works and repairs and may in the course thereof fell or lop trees, remove vegetation and do all other things necessary to the said purpose causing as little damage as possible and paying full compensation to all persons interested for any damage that may be caused thereby.

Power to enter on land for purposes of a Government installation, and to fix apparatus.

Provided that the Chairman or other person so authorized shall not less than 21 days before felling or lopping any trees or removing any vegetation on occupied land serve on the occupier of the land notice of his intention so to do. Such occupier may within 10 days of the service of such notice appeal to the Resident who after giving all parties an opportunity of being heard before an officer appointed by him for that purpose may either unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as he thinks fit authorize or prohibit the felling or lopping of such trees or the removal of such vegetation.

(ii) For the necessary purposes of inspecting the installation, fitting or removing meters or other instruments for measuring the quantity of energy supplied to the premises, making or removing connections between mains and private fittings, repairing damage and for other proper cause the Chairman or any person authorized by him in that behalf may at all reasonable times enter upon any lands, houses or buildings to which energy is to be or has been supplied by the Government.

(iii) The Chairman or any person authorized by him in that behalf may, with the approval of the Resident, cause such lamp-irons, lamp-posts, insulating material, brackets, stays, rosettes or other apparatus to be put up or fixed upon or against the walls or palisades of any houses, buildings or enclosures or to be put up or erected in such other places and manner as shall be deemed proper doing as little damage as may be practicable and making sufficient amends by way of repairs, restoration or compensation to all persons interested for such damage as may be done; and may also cause such number of lamps of such sizes and sorts to be put on and affixed to such lamp-irons, lamp-posts and brackets as shall be deemed necessary and may cause the same to be lighted during such hours as shall be deemed necessary.

Power to enter on land for purposes of a licensed installation, and to fix apparatus.

10. For the necessary purposes of installing any system of distribution of energy licensed under this Enactment, the licensee may lay, place or carry on, under or over land other than State land such electric supply lines, and may erect in or upon land other than State land such posts and other apparatus as may be necessary or proper for the purposes of the licensed installation and may take such other action as may be necessary to render such installation safe and efficient.

Provided that before laying any such line or erecting such posts and apparatus the licensee shall serve on the owner or occupier of the land notice of his intention, together with a description of the nature and position of the lines, posts and apparatus proposed to be so laid or erected, and of the nature of any other action proposed to be taken; and if within 21 days after the service of the notice, the owner or occupier fail to give their consent or attach to their consent any terms or conditions or stipulations to which the licensee objects, it shall not be lawful to lay the line or erect the posts or apparatus on the land without the consent of the Resident; and the Resident may, if after giving all parties concerned an opportunity of being heard he thinks it just, give his consent either unconditionally or subject to such terms, conditions and stipulations as he thinks just.

Owner of property may require removal or alteration of licensed installation.

11. (i) When a line has been laid or posts or apparatus erected on any land under the provisions of section 10 and the owner or occupier of the land desires to deal with the property in such a manner as to render it necessary or convenient that the line posts or apparatus should be removed to another part thereof, or to a higher or lower level, or altered in form he may require the licensee to remove or alter the line, posts or apparatus accordingly.

(ii) If the licensee omits to comply with the requisition, the person making it may apply in writing to a Magistrate of the First Class within whose jurisdiction the property is situate to order the removal or alteration.

No. 14 OF 1925.

(iii) A Magistrate receiving an application under the last preceding sub-section may, in his discretion, reject the same or make an order, absolutely or subject to conditions, for the removal or alteration of the line, posts or apparatus.

12. (i) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Resident under section 10, or by any order of the Magistrate under sub-section (iii) of section 11 may appeal to the Supreme Court. Appeal.

(ii) No appeal shall be admitted after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the decision or order appealed against.

13. For the necessary purposes of maintaining and repairing a licensed installation the licensee or any person authorized by him in that behalf may at all reasonable times on giving due notice enter upon any lands, whether the same be or be not owned or occupied by any person, for the purpose of carrying out and may carry out all necessary repairs, and may in the course thereof fell or lop trees, remove vegetation and do all other things necessary to the said purpose, causing as little damage as possible and paying full compensation to all persons interested for any damage that may be caused thereby. Power to enter on land to maintain and repair licensed installation.

14. (i) The Government and any licensee may, without incurring any liability for so doing other than a liability to make a proportionate abatement in the charges for the supply, reduce as it or he may think fit the quantity of energy supplied to any premises if by reason of any unforeseen circumstances it may appear that the supply of energy generated is insufficient to enable the full quantity to be conveniently supplied. Reduction or cessation of supply; liability.

(ii) The Government shall not be liable for any damage to person or property or for any cessation of the supply of energy which may be due to unavoidable accident, fair wear and tear or the reasonable requirements of the system or to defects in any installation not provided by the Government, but only when such damage or cessation shall be shown to have resulted from negligence on the part of persons employed by the Government or from faulty construction on the part of the Government.

(iii) A licensee shall not be liable for any cessation of the supply of energy which may be due to unavoidable accident, fair wear and tear or the reasonable requirements of the system, but only when such cessation shall be shown to have resulted from negligence on the part of the licensee, his agents or servants or from faulty construction.

15. (i) The execution of all work in connection with the generation or supply of energy which may affect any street, railway, tramway, river, canal or other waterway or any system of irrigation, drainage or water supply or any telegraphs, telephones, harbour works or other public or private works and the erection of any apparatus crossing, whether overhead or underground, any such way or work as aforesaid shall be carried out in the prescribed manner and without prejudice to public safety or private safety. Precautions in execution of work; inspection of progress.

(ii) When an installation is under construction, except in the case of installations provided for under section 37 (ii) every Inspector shall have free access for inspection at all reasonable hours of the work in progress and all reasonable facilities for such inspection shall be afforded by the persons controlling or carrying on the work.

Inspection of
on completion.

16. Except in the case of installations provided for under section 37 (ii) on the completion of a new installation the owner thereof shall give notice in writing to the Chief Inspector, who will cause inspection and tests to be made within the prescribed period and if the installation satisfies the requirements of this Enactment and the rules thereunder will certify accordingly in the prescribed form. No installation shall be operated until such certificate has been obtained.

Periodical
of installations.

17. In addition to periodical inspections during construction and final inspections on completion, all installations while in operation shall be inspected at least once in every six months and such further inspections may be made as the Chief Inspector may direct. The licensee and management and persons in charge of all installations shall afford full facilities for inspection within reasonable working hours.

Installations completed or commenced
before
of Enactment.

18. Except as may be otherwise provided by any exemption under section 38, all installations which shall have been operated or whereof the construction shall have been completed or begun before the commencement of this Enactment shall be subject to this Enactment and the rules thereunder.

Competent control.

19. No installation or electrical plant or apparatus except such as may be exempted under section 38 shall be worked or operated except by or under the control of persons possessing such qualifications and holding such certificates as may be prescribed, and no person not possessing such qualifications or holding such certificate shall be in charge of any installation or shall control the operation of any electrical plant or apparatus.

Electrical
interference with Government signalling
lines.

20. (i) If the Resident is satisfied that the working or operation of any installation causes electrical interference with any telegraphic, telephonic or other electrical signalling lines owned or operated by or on behalf of the Government, the Resident may at his discretion

(a) in the case of a licensed installation by notice to the licensee suspend the licence, or

(b) in the case of an unlicensed installation prohibit by an order the working or operation thereof; and until arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of the Resident for preventing the recurrence of such electrical interference as aforesaid, and if in the case of a licensed installation no such arrangements are so made then the Resident may revoke absolutely the licence for the said installation.

(ii) For any loss caused to a licensee by the suspension or revocation of a licence under this section the licensee shall be entitled to compensation from the Government, the amount whereof shall, unless settled by the mutual agreement of the Government and the licensee, be determined by two arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Government and the other by the licensee, and the provisions of "The Arbitration Enactment, 1912," shall apply to such arbitration as if the same were pursuant to a submission within the meaning of the said Enactment.

21. Any department of the Government or any other consumer taking or using energy from an installation shall, if the Chief Inspector so requires, provide such means for obviating risk of damage to such installation by atmospheric electricity as may be directed by the Chief Inspector.

Precautions
against atmospheric electricity.

22. (i) No person shall in the generation, transmission, supply or use of energy permit any part of his electric supply lines to be connected with earth except as may be required by rule under section 37 or may be expressly permitted by the Chief Inspector.

Restriction on
with earth.

(ii) In the event of any breach of the provisions of sub-section (i) the Chief Inspector may by written order require the licensee or owner to break such connection and may prohibit the use of any electrical supply line or works or of any installation until the order is complied with, and every such order shall be complied with by the person concerned.

23. No person shall lay or carry any mains, pipes, conduits or wires in, along, through, across, over or under any street or place in a manner tending to interfere with or cause damage to any electrical works or apparatus of the Government without first obtaining permission from the Resident, which permission may be granted or withheld at his discretion or granted upon such terms as he may think fit to impose.

Protection of Government
electrical works.

24. No consumer shall use energy supplied to him for purposes other than that for which it is supplied.

Use of energy supplied.

25. When any electric wires, meters, fittings, works or apparatus belonging to the Government are placed in or upon any private premises for the purpose of supplying or measuring energy, and when any electric wires, meters, fittings, works or apparatus belonging to a licensee are placed in or upon premises, not owned or occupied by such licensee, for the purpose of supplying or measuring energy, such wires, meters, fittings, works or apparatus shall not be subject to distress nor be liable to be taken in execution under any process of a Court or in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against any person.

Exemption of
attachment.

26. (i) In the event of an Inspector finding in any installation or apparatus any defect which in his opinion is likely to cause danger he may, by notice in writing posted at the place where the installation or apparatus to which it relates is installed or working or served upon the licensee or owner thereof, suspend the operation and use of such installation or apparatus until such defect is made good or removed, and in such case the said installation or apparatus shall not be operated or used so long as the said notice of suspension remains unrevoked.

Procedure in case of dangerous defect in installation or apparatus.

ELECTRICITY.

(ii) Every licensee and every management and person in charge of an installation becoming aware of a defect therein which is likely to cause danger and every consumer becoming aware of a defect in any apparatus which is likely to cause danger shall forthwith make a report thereof to an Inspector.

(iii) If in the opinion of the Chief Inspector any defect in an installation in respect whereof a licence is in force is of such a nature that it cannot be made good or removed, the Board shall hold an enquiry and forward their finding to the Resident who may cancel the licence.

Entry on premises.

27. The Chief Inspector and Inspectors are empowered to enter upon any premises, in or upon which any installation or apparatus may be, at any time between the hours of 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. and also at any other time when any installation or apparatus in or upon such premises may be at work.

Serious
accidents to be reported.
Investigation
and enquiry.

28. (i) Whenever any accident causing or resulting in loss of life or grievous hurt to any person or serious injury to property has occurred in connection with any installation or electrical plant or apparatus, the owner or licensee thereof and the management thereof shall with the least possible delay report in writing to an Inspector the facts of the matter so far as they are known to them respectively, and the Inspector shall thereupon visit the place where the accident occurred and make a preliminary investigation of the circumstances and record in writing his finding upon such investigation, and if there has been any loss of life or there is reason to believe that any person has been fatally injured shall send a copy of his finding to the nearest Magistrate.

(ii) In the event of loss of life or grievous hurt to any person due to any accident in connection with any installation or electrical plant or apparatus no alterations or additions shall without the consent of an Inspector be made to any part of such installation, plant or apparatus which may have contributed to cause such accident nor shall any alterations be made without such consent to the site of the accident until an Inspector has completed his investigation; provided that nothing herein contained shall operate to interfere with rescue work or work necessary for the general safety of life or property.

(iii) If upon a preliminary investigation under sub-section (i) it appears to the officer making such investigation that there is reason to believe that the accident was due to any failure to comply with the provisions of this Enactment or of the rules made thereunder or to neglect of any lawful order given by an Inspector, or if the officer making such investigation as aforesaid is satisfied that the accident might have been prevented if proper precautions had been taken and observed in the working of any installation or electrical plant or apparatus, a member of the Board shall with the assistance of one or more persons of electrical or other special skill and experience to be nominated by the Resident as assessors hold an enquiry into the nature and cause of the accident and shall forward to the Resident a copy of the evidence taken at such enquiry together with his finding thereon and such further report as may seem to him necessary, and if he is of opinion that criminal proceedings ought to be instituted against any person in connection with the accident he shall also forward to the Deputy Public Prosecutor a copy of the said evidence, finding and report.

(iv) The provisions of sub-sections (iv) and (v) of section 30 shall apply to any enquiry held under the preceding sub-section.

29. No licensee or management shall employ or permit to be employed on any service involving management of or attendance on or proximity to live apparatus not effectively insulated any person under the age of sixteen years. Prohibition of employment of children.

30. (i) In the event of any difference of opinion between a licensee and an Inspector or between a management or owner of any installation or apparatus and an Inspector regarding any structural question or question of fitting or adjustment in relation to any installation or apparatus, the matter shall be referred to and decided by the Chief Inspector. Questions for decision by Chief Inspector, subject to appeal to Resident.

(ii) From any decision of the Chief Inspector under sub-section (i) an appeal shall lie to the Resident; provided that no such appeal shall, except by special permission of the Resident, be admitted after the expiration of forty-two days from the date when the decision appealed against was given. In dealing with any such appeal the Resident, after enquiry shall have been made into the subject-matter thereof in the manner provided in sub-section (iii) and after such further investigation, if any, as he thinks fit to make, may set aside or vary the decision of the Chief Inspector or may uphold the same, and the decision of the Resident shall be final and shall be carried into effect.

(iii) The subject-matter of any such appeal shall be referred by the Resident to the Board who shall appoint a member as a representative to hold an enquiry into the same with the assistance of two persons of electrical or other special skill and experience, to be nominated by the Resident as assessors. At the conclusion of such enquiry the Board shall forward to the Resident the evidence, if any, recorded by their representative together with his opinion and recommendations as to the decision proper to be given in the matter of the appeal, and any assessor who may dissent from the opinion or recommendations given may deliver to the Board for transmission to the Resident a statement in writing of the reasons for his dissent.

(iv) Persons nominated by the Resident to serve as assessors under this section shall be summoned by the Board so to serve, and every person so summoned who shall assist as assessor at any enquiry held by any member of the Board under this section shall be entitled to receive from the public funds such remuneration as the Chief Secretary may from time to time fix by notification in the Gazette.

(v) Any person summoned to attend as an assessor who without lawful excuse fails to attend as required by the summons or having attended departs without having obtained the permission of the member representing the Board or fails to attend after an adjournment of the enquiry after having been made aware that his attendance will be required shall be liable upon order made by the member representing the Board to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars. When any person is so fined in his absence, the Board shall forthwith send to him a written notice of the fact requiring him to pay the fine or to show cause before the Board within seven days why the same should not be paid. Any such fine may be enforced in manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure in force for the time being.

Powers of
enquiry.

31. For the purpose of holding enquiries under this Enactment the member representing the Board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations and shall be vested with the powers of a Magistrate for compelling the attendance of witnesses, maintaining order and otherwise duly conducting the said enquiries. Persons summoned to attend at any such enquiry shall be legally bound so to attend.

Liabilities
unaffected.

32. Except as in sections 5, 14 and 25 provided, nothing in this Enactment contained shall operate to relieve any licensee or management from any civil or criminal liability arising otherwise than under this Enactment.

Public servants.

33. The Chief Inspector, Deputy Chief Inspector and Inspectors appointed under section 3 shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code.

Penalties.

34. (i) Any person who
(a) wilfully so tampers with or adjusts any part of an installation as to cause or to be likely to cause danger to human life or limb or injury to any apparatus or other property; or
(b) by any rash or negligent act or omission in respect of any part of an installation under his control causes hurt to any person or injury to property; or
(c) dishonestly abstracts, consumes or uses any energy, shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months or with fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or with both.

(ii) Proof of the fitting, otherwise than by or by permission of the Government or a licensee, of such mechanical or other means as would facilitate the abstraction of energy shall, as against the person fitting the same or causing the same to be fitted, be evidence of such dishonest abstraction as is referred to in paragraph (c) of sub-section (i).

(iii) Any person who in contravention of the provisions of section 4 supplies energy from an installation to or for the use of any other person shall be punishable with fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and if the contravention be continued with fine not exceeding two hundred dollars for every day on which the same is continued after the first day on which a conviction is had.

No. 14 of 1925.

(iv) Any licensee who without express authority from the Government in that behalf supplies energy or lays down any electric supply line or constructs any electrical works outside the area of supply specified in his licence shall be punishable with fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and any such unauthorized line or works may, after conviction had under this sub-section in respect thereof, be removed by order of the Resident and the reasonable cost of such removal may be recovered from the licensee.

(v) Any licensee authorized by his licence to supply energy to other persons who in breach of any condition of his licence or of any rule under this Enactment and without reasonable cause (the burden of proving which shall be on him) fails to supply energy to any consumer whose premises are within the area of supply specified in his licence or discontinues the supply of energy to any such consumer shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and in the case of a continued failure or discontinuance with fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for every day on which the failure or discontinuance is continued after the first day on which a conviction is had.

(vi) Any person who in contravention of the provisions of section 4 uses, works or operates or permits to be used, worked or operated any installation shall be punishable with fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and if the contravention be continued with fine not exceeding fifty dollars for every day on which the same is continued after the first day on which a conviction is had.

(vii) Any person who wilfully injures any meter or other instrument used on or in connection with any Government installation or any licensed installation for recording the output or consumption of energy or dishonestly alters the index of any such meter or instrument or dishonestly prevents any such meter or instrument from duly recording the output or consumption of energy shall be punishable with fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

(viii) Any person who without due authority in that behalf wilfully extinguishes or damages any public lamp or wilfully damages any post, bracket or other means of support of a public lamp shall be punishable with imprisonment for a period not exceeding four months or with fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or with both.

(ix) Any person who wilfully or negligently causes energy to be diverted from its proper course or to be wasted or wilfully or negligently breaks, throws down or damages any electric supply line or any post, pole, lamp or other apparatus connected with the supply of energy shall be punishable with fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(x) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Enactment or of the rules thereunder for the contravention whereof no penalty is otherwise expressly provided or fails to comply with any order lawfully made in pursuance of this

Enactment or the said rules and any licensee who fails to comply with any condition expressed or by virtue of this Enactment implied in his licence shall be punishable with fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars and if the contravention or failure be continued with fine not exceeding twenty dollars for every day on which the contravention or failure is continued after the first day on which a conviction is had.

Who may institute
prosecutions.

35. No prosecution shall be instituted under this Enactment except by or at the instance of the Chief Inspector, the Deputy Chief Inspector or an Inspector.

Provided that prosecutions for the breach of any rules made under the provisions of section 37 (ii) may be instituted by such persons or in such manner as is prescribed.

Powers of
Court of First Class Magistrate.

36. Any punishment authorized by this Enactment may be imposed by the Court of a Magistrate of the First Class, notwithstanding that the same be in excess of the punishment which such Court is ordinarily empowered to impose.

Rules.

37. (i) The Chief Secretary may from time to time make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Enactment to prescribe

- (a) the duties under this Enactment of any officers appointed under section 3;
- (b) the times at which and the manner in which any installations or apparatus shall be inspected, the notice (if any) to be given in relation to inspections and the preparations to be made by the licensees and the management for such inspections;
- (c) the design, construction, protection and maintenance of installations and apparatus, the conditions under which any installation or apparatus shall be worked or operated and the prohibition of the use of dangerous apparatus;
- (d) the means which may be employed (to the exclusion of other means) for the generation, transmission, transformation, distribution and application of energy;
- (e) the manner in which energy shall be measured and in which it is permitted to be, or is prohibited from being, supplied or used;
- (f) the standards to be adopted for measurement of dimensions of installations and apparatus;
- (g) the regulation and variation of the nature, pressure and periodicity of the energy supplied;
- (h) the class or design, or classes or designs, of wires, fittings and apparatus to be used by consumers and the manner in which they shall be fixed, arranged, protected and controlled and providing for the erection, inspection, testing and maintenance thereof;

No. 14 OF 1925.

- (i) the fees to be paid for the inspection of installations and apparatus, the form and contents of and the conditions to be implied in licences, the form and duration of certificates and the suspension, extension and revocation of licences and certificates;
- (j) the qualifications to be possessed by persons before they may be entrusted with the charge of any installation or the control of the operation of apparatus;
- (k) the nature of the tests to be employed for ascertaining whether persons possess the qualifications prescribed under paragraph (j) of this section, the form of certificates to be issued to persons found to possess the said qualifications, the manner and conditions of the issue thereof and the fees to be paid for such tests and certificates;
- (l) the measures to be taken and the fittings to be supplied and used in connection with installations in order to secure public safety and private safety;
- (m) the manner of effecting alterations to installations in operation;
- (n) the precautions to be taken on the relief of persons in control of apparatus and the manner of notifying to Inspectors the names and qualifications of persons placed in charge of installations and in control of the operation of apparatus.
- (o) the manner of calculating the power of generators and motors;
- (p) the manner of holding enquiries under this Enactment;
- (q) the form of notices and the manner of service thereof;
- (r) the means to be adopted, whether by prohibition or otherwise, to prevent or abate any nuisance likely to arise or arising from the working of any installation or apparatus;
- (s) the records to be kept in respect of installations, licences, inspections and any other matters to which this Enactment relates and the form thereof and the persons by whom the same are to be kept;
- (t) the time, place and manner for the payment of moneys payable under this Enactment or the rules thereunder and the mode of collection and disposal thereof;
- (u) the fine with which the contravention of any rule made under this Enactment shall be punishable, provided that no such fine shall exceed five hundred dollars;
- (v) any other matters as to which it may appear to the Chief Secretary expedient to make rules for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Enactment.

(ii) With exclusive reference to Government public installations or to Government apparatus and to energy supplied therefrom the Chief Secretary may also from time to time make rules to provide for

- (w) prescribing the charges to be made in respect of energy supplied and in respect of the inspection, testing and maintenance of consumers' installations and apparatus and in respect of the fixing and testing of meters and in respect of any other services properly rendered on account of consumers;
- (x) regulating applications for energy and prescribing the manner of effecting the supply thereof and the incidence of the charges connected therewith;
- (y) regulating the supply and use of energy, the requiring of security from consumers and the discontinuance of the supply in cases where the consumer fails to observe the requirements of this Enactment or of any rule thereunder or is in arrears with his payments of any prescribed charges or uses defective fittings and also in other cases where such discontinuance may be deemed necessary or advisable;
- (z) appointing officers to collect all sums due to the Government in connection with Government public installations and generally to do all acts necessary for the proper management of the supply of energy.

(iii) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette and shall have the same force and effect as if they had been enacted in this Enactment.

(iv) In respect of moneys payable under this Enactment or any rules thereunder for energy supplied from Government public installations or for apparatus or services connected therewith, if the same are prescribed to be payable to or at the office of a Sanitary Board the provisions of sections 31 to 45, inclusive, of the Sanitary Boards Enactment, 1916, shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Enactment or with any rules thereunder, apply in the same manner and to the same extent as if such moneys were a rate payable under the said Sanitary Boards Enactment.

Exemption
from provisions
of Enactment.

38. The Chief Secretary may by notification in the Gazette exempt from any or all of the provisions of this Enactment

- (a) any installation, or part thereof, owned by or worked by or on behalf of the Government;
 - (b) any installation, or part thereof, constructed before the commencement of this Enactment;
 - (c) any other particular class of installation or apparatus;
- and may by a similar notification cancel any exemption so notified.

No. 14 OF 1925.

39. (i) No action shall be brought against any person for anything done or bona fide intended to be done in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers given by this Enactment or by any rules made thereunder

Provision
regarding actions.

- (a) without giving to such person one month's previous notice in writing of the intended action and of the cause thereof;
- (b) after the expiration of three months from the date of the accrual of the cause of action;
- (c) after the tender of sufficient amends.

(ii) In every action so brought it shall be expressly alleged that the defendant acted either maliciously or negligently and without reasonable or probable cause, and if, at the trial, the plaintiff shall fail to prove such allegation judgment shall be given for the defendant.

(iii) Though judgment shall be given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant unless the Court before whom the action is tried shall certify its approbation of the action.

Passed this 29th day of June, 1925.

G. W. BRYANT,
Clerk of Council.

No. 6895.—The following Bill about to be introduced in the Federal Council is published for general information :

A BILL

An Enactment to further amend "The Sanitary Boards Enactment, 1916."

IT is hereby enacted by the Rulers of the Federated Malay States in Council as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1. This Enactment may be cited as "The Sanitary Boards (Further Amendment) Enactment, 1925," and shall come into force on publication thereof in the Gazette.

Amendment of section 4.

2. Section 4 of "The Sanitary Boards Enactment, 1916," hereinafter called the principal Enactment, is amended by inserting immediately after paragraph (p) two new paragraphs as follows:

"(q) The draining, filling or re-claiming of land, provided that no owner shall be required to incur expense in excess of the difference in values of his land before and after such draining, filling or re-claiming."

"(r) The prevention and abatement of mosquito breeding on wet lands or in or about any pond, well, spring, drain or stream" and by re-lettering the original paragraph (q) as (s).

Substituted section 13A.

3. Section 13A of the principal Enactment is repealed and the following sections substituted therefor:

Drainage, contribution and rate.

"13A. (i) In addition to the drainage of streets, canals and bridges and the control and supervision of drains in section 4 referred to, a Sanitary Board may construct and maintain within the area subject to its control a system or systems of drainage for the removal of water from any lands within the said area and may fill up irregularities in the surface of the land and adjust the surface as part of such system or systems.

(ii) A Sanitary Board may require the owner or owners of lands benefited thereby to contribute the whole or a portion of the cost of such construction. The amount of the contribution to be paid by every owner of land so required to contribute shall be assessed with regard to the condition of his land prior to such construction and the benefit accruing to him from such construction: provided always that the amount of contribution shall not exceed the difference between the selling value of such land prior to such construction and the selling value of such land after such construction ascertained as provided in section 19 of this Enactment.

(iii) For the purpose of the previous sub-section the cost of construction shall not include the cost of any work or service for which provision is made from the general rate imposed under section 12 of this Enactment.

(iv) The Board shall give notice of the assessment of contributions and consider and enquire into complaints against such assessment in the manner provided in section 24 of this Enactment, and shall further afford any owner or his agent all reasonable facilities for ascertaining the nature of the proposals in respect of which the assessment is made.

A notice given under this sub-section shall state the time or times within which payment of the contribution shall be made.

No. of 1925.

(v) Any person who, having made a complaint or objection in the manner prescribed by the previous sub-section, is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board thereon may appeal in the manner provided by section 28 of this Enactment.

(vi) Any contribution duly imposed under this section shall be a first charge on the property in respect of which it is imposed and may be recovered in the manner provided by this Enactment for the recovery of unpaid rates.

(vii) To meet the cost of maintenance of any system or systems of drainage constructed under the provisions of this section a Sanitary Board may impose a further annual rate or further annual rates, in addition to the rates referred to in sections 12 and 13 of this Enactment upon all lands and upon all buildings within the whole of the Sanitary Board area or within such part or parts thereof as may be appointed under sub-section (viii).

(viii) Every annual rate to be imposed under this section shall be fixed from time to time by the Resident of the State after consultation with the Sanitary Board, and where any such rate is not to be imposed on the whole of a Sanitary Board area the limits within which it is to be imposed shall be fixed in the same manner.

(ix) A rate imposed under this section shall be in respect of the cost of maintenance of the system or systems of drainage excluding the cost of any work or service for which provision is made from the general rate imposed under section 12 of this Enactment and shall be payable in the manner prescribed for payment of the rate referred to in section 12; provided that such rate if assessed upon the annual value of lands houses and buildings shall not exceed five per centum of such annual value.

13B. For the better maintenance of any system of drainage constructed under the preceding or any repealed section the Board may, with or without the payment of compensation as the Board may determine, remove or otherwise deal with any tree or other vegetation which in the opinion of the Board is likely to cause obstruction or damage to such system of drainage."

damage.

OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill has two objects, firstly to increase the powers of a Sanitary Board in abating nuisances and preventing mosquito breeding, and secondly to provide for owners of land specially benefited by a drainage system being charged a fair proportion of the original cost of construction.

The first of these objects will be accomplished by new by-laws, and clause 2 of this Bill will give power to pass such by-laws. Clause 3 of the Bill makes provision for the recovery of the cost of construction of a system of drainage, the cost of maintenance being met by the imposition of an extra rate, and provides power to prevent damage to such a system by encroaching trees or vegetation.

"THE ELECTRICITY ENACTMENT, 1925."

RULES.

No. 6947.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 37 of "The Electricity Enactment, 1925," the Chief Secretary to Government hereby makes the following rules:

1. In these rules the following expressions have, unless the context otherwise requires, the respective meanings hereby assigned to them:

"The Enactment" means "The Electricity Enactment, 1925";

"Aerial line" means an electric supply line which is placed above ground and in the open air;

"Bare" means not covered or protected with or by insulating material;

"Circuit" means an electrical circuit forming a system or a branch of a system;

"Converter" means a rotary machine for transforming energy;

"Dead" means at or about zero potential and disconnected from any live system;

"Distributing main" means the portion of any main with which a service line is or is intended to be immediately connected;

"Earthed" means connected to the general mass of earth in such manner as to ensure at all times an immediate discharge;

"Generating station" means the works or station where energy is primarily generated and includes all buildings and plant used for the purpose and the site thereof;

"Lightning guard" means apparatus of any description for the purpose of protecting a system from danger or damage from atmospheric electricity;

"Extra high pressure" means a pressure in a system normally exceeding 3,000 volts where the energy is used or supplied;

"High pressure" means a pressure in a system normally exceeding 650 volts but not exceeding 3,000 volts where the energy is used or supplied;

"Low pressure" means a pressure in a system normally not exceeding 250 volts where the energy is used;

"Medium pressure" means a pressure in a system normally exceeding 250 volts but not exceeding 650 volts where the energy is used;

"Owner" means the owner or lessee of an installation and includes, where the owner or lessee is absent, his authorized agent;

"Portable apparatus" means apparatus so constructed that it may be readily moved from place to place and be safely operated without structural alterations following on such removal;

"Rectifier" means a mercury vapour or other electro-chemical apparatus for transforming energy;

"Service line" means an electric supply line through which energy is, or is intended to be, supplied to a consumer either from a distributing main or immediately from a generating or distributing station;

"Standards of measurement" means the electrical standards that may be prescribed from time to time by rule under the Enactment;

"Storage" means the absorption of energy in batteries of accumulators for future use;

"Sub-station" means the works or station where energy is received for transformation, conversion, storage or distribution and includes all buildings and plant used for the purpose and the site thereof;

"Switch-board" means a collection of switches or fuses, conductors and other apparatus in connection therewith for the purpose of controlling the current or pressure in any system or part of a system, together with the framing and panels on which such apparatus is supported;

"Switch-board passage-way" means a passage-way or compartment large enough for a person to enter and intended for use in connection with a switch-board when live;

"Transformer" means a static transformer for transforming energy.

2. (i) The Board shall, subject to the directions of the Chief Secretary, supervise and be generally responsible for the due execution of the provisions of the Enactment and these rules, with power to arrange the posting of Inspectors, and shall before the first day of March in every year submit to the Chief Secretary a report on the working of the Enactment during the preceding year.

(ii) The Chief Inspector shall, subject to the directions of the Board, supervise the technical execution of the provisions of the Enactment and these rules, shall direct the Inspectors in their technical duties and issue technical instructions to them, shall when called upon so to do by the Board make personal inspections and report thereon to the Board and shall keep such records as may be required by the Enactment or these rules to be kept by the Chief Inspector.

(iii) Inspectors shall, subject to the directions of the Chief Inspector on technical matters, carry out the provisions of the Enactment and keep such records as may be required by these rules to be kept by Inspectors.

3. (i) Inspections of installations and apparatus shall be carried out within reasonable working hours; provided that in the event of an accident in connection with any installation or apparatus inspection is to be made as soon as is practicable after receipt of the report prescribed by section 28 of the Enactment.

(ii) All inspections and tests shall be carried out as the Chief Inspector may direct and in such manner as to cause as little inconvenience as possible to the management.

(iii) Inspections of new installations shall be made within a reasonable time not exceeding 21 days after receipt of the notice prescribed by section 16 of the Enactment, and reasonable notice of the time when the inspection will be made shall be given in writing to the licensee or owner who shall cause the person who is intended to have charge of the installation to attend and give such assistance as may be required by the Inspector.

(iv) Reasonable notice of the time when inspections will be made under section 17 of the Enactment shall be given in writing by the Inspectors to the licensee or owner who shall cause the person who is intended to have charge of the installation to attend at the inspection and give such assistance as may be required by the Inspector.

(v) The licensee or owner shall cause to be made such preparations for inspections as may be required by written notice from an Inspector and the person in charge shall, if required by an Inspector so to do, assist in the testing of the installation or apparatus, and shall switch off or switch on energy as may be required.

(vi) In cases where an installation or apparatus in respect of which a certificate of inspection has been issued is not working and the owner or licensee does not desire its further inspection, notice thereof in writing shall be sent by the owner or licensee to an Inspector before the expiration of six months from the date of the last certificate of inspection issued in respect of such installation or apparatus, otherwise the inspection shall be made and the fee charged. Before bringing such installation or apparatus into use the owner or licensee shall send notice in writing to an Inspector and if six months shall have elapsed since the date of the last certificate of inspection issued in respect of such installation or apparatus an inspection shall be made within a reasonable period not exceeding 21 days after the receipt of the said notice and such installation or apparatus shall not be worked until a certificate of inspection under section 17 of the Enactment has been issued.

4. (i) All apparatus and conductors shall be sufficient in size and power to serve the purposes for which they are intended and shall be so constructed, installed, protected, worked and maintained as to prevent danger, so far as is reasonably practicable.

(ii) All conductors shall either be insulated and further efficiently protected where necessary to avoid danger or shall be so placed or safeguarded as to prevent danger, so far as is reasonably practicable.

(iii) Every switch, switch-fuse, circuit-breaker and isolating link shall be

(a) so constructed, placed or protected as to prevent danger;

(b) so constructed and adjusted as accurately to make and maintain good contact;

4

- (c) provided with an efficient handle, or other means of working, insulated from the system and so arranged that the hand cannot inadvertently touch live metal;
- (d) so constructed or arranged that it cannot accidentally fall or move into contact when left out of contact.
- (iv) Every switch intended to be used for breaking a circuit and every circuit-breaker shall be so constructed that it cannot, if reasonable care be used, be left in partial contact. This applies to each pole of double-pole or multipole switches or circuit-breakers. Every switch intended to be used for breaking a circuit and every circuit-breaker shall be so constructed that an arc cannot accidentally be maintained.
- (v) Every fuse, and every automatic circuit-breaker used instead of a fuse, shall be so constructed and arranged as effectively to interrupt the electric current before it so exceeds the working rate as to involve danger. It shall be of such construction or be so guarded or placed as to prevent danger from over-heating or from arcing or from the scattering of hot metal or other substance when it comes into operation. Every fuse shall be either of such construction or so protected by a switch that the fusible portion may be readily renewed without danger.
- (vi) Every electrical joint and connection shall be of proper construction as regards conductivity, insulation, mechanical strength and mechanical protection.
- (vii) In connection with every system efficient means, suitably located, shall be provided for
 - (a) cutting off all pressure from every part of the system;
 - (b) protecting from excess of current every part of the system.
- (viii) Where one of the conductors of a system is earthed, no single-pole switch, other than a link for testing purposes or a switch for use in controlling a generator, shall be placed in such conductor or any branch thereof; provided that a switch or automatic or other cut-out may be placed in the connection between the conductor and earth at the generating station but shall not be used except for testing and in emergencies only.
- (ix) Where systems of wiring are used which employ one bare and one insulated conductor, no switch, fuse or circuit-breaker shall be placed in the bare conductor or in any conductor connected thereto and the said conductor shall be earthed; provided that switches, fuses or circuit-breakers may be used to break the connection with the generators or transformers supplying the energy if the connection of the bare conductor with earth is not thereby broken.
- (x) Every motor, converter, rectifier and transformer shall be protected by efficient means suitably placed and so connected that all pressure may thereby be disconnected from the motor, converter, rectifier or transformer, as the case may be, and from all apparatus in connection therewith; provided that where one point of the system is earthed there shall be no obligation to provide means of disconnection on that side of the system which is earthed.

(xi) Every motor shall be controlled by an efficient switch or switches for starting and stopping, so placed as to be easily worked by the person in charge of the motor. In every place in which machinery is being driven by a motor there shall be means at hand for either switching off the motor or stopping the machinery.

(xii) A notice of standard pattern displaying the words "No Admittance" shall be placed outside every place containing electrical machinery where interference with such machinery may cause danger.

The standard notice shall be of metal, enamelled or painted white, 14 inches wide and $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep with lettering in black and it shall be maintained in a clearly legible condition. At the top the words NO ADMITTANCE are to be in block letter capitals, the inscription $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches long and $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches deep, uprights of letters being $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide. In suitable places are to be inscribed the equivalent words in Malay, Chinese, Tamil and Gurmuki characters with uprights $\frac{3}{16}$ inch wide.

(xiii) (a) Every flexible wire for portable apparatus, for alternating currents or for any pressure exceeding 150 volts direct current shall be connected to the system whereof such apparatus forms part either by efficient permanent joints or connections or by a properly constructed connector. In all cases where a person handling portable apparatus or pendant lamps with switches, for alternating current or for pressures exceeding 150 volts direct current, would be liable to get a shock through a conducting floor or conducting work or otherwise if any metallic part of the apparatus became charged all metallic parts thereof shall be earthed, and any metallic covering of conductors shall be earthed and other connection with earth shall also be provided for the metal of the apparatus. No lamp-holder shall be in metallic connection with the guard or any other metallic part of a portable lamp.

(b) In any place where the pressure exceeds low pressure the portable apparatus and its flexible wire shall be controlled by efficient means suitably located and capable of cutting off the pressure, and all metallic parts shall be earthed independently of any flexible metallic cover of the conductors, and any such flexible covering shall itself be independently earthed.

(xiv) Where lamp-holders for use with alternating current or for any pressure exceeding 150 volts direct current are exposed to the weather, or are within reach of persons normally working in the vicinity on a conducting floor, they shall be of completely insulated construction or earthed, and where subject to accidental damage shall be further protected by an earthed guard.

(xv) The general arrangement of switch-boards shall, so far as reasonably practical, be such that

- (a) all parts which may have to be adjusted or handled are readily accessible;
- (b) the course of every conductor may be readily traced. Should this be impracticable a clearly drawn diagram of the connections is to be hung near the switch-board;
- (c) conductors, not arranged for connection to the same system, are kept well apart and can be readily distinguished;
- (d) all bare conductors are so placed or protected as to prevent danger from accidental short circuit.

(xvi) Every switch-board having bare conductors normally so exposed that they may be touched shall, if not located in an area set apart for the purpose thereof, where necessary be suitably fenced or otherwise enclosed. No person except an authorised person, or a person acting under the immediate supervision of an authorised person, shall have access to any part of an area so set apart and a notice of standard pattern displaying the word "Danger" shall be placed near the switch-board.

The standard notice shall be of metal, enamelled or painted white, $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide and 14 inches deep with lettering in scarlet and it shall be maintained in a clearly legible condition. At the top it shall bear a line of three conventional thunderbolts, each $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches deep and $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide at the broadest part. Below these the word DANGER in Roman capitals, the inscription $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches long and $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches deep, uprights of letters being $\frac{1}{4}$ inch wide. In suitable places are to be inscribed the equivalent word in Malay, Chinese, Tamil and Gurmuki in characters with uprights $3/16$ inch wide.

(xvii) (a) Switch-gear for use in connection with winches and winders, and in all underground workings, and in positions exposed to the weather, and on dredges, unless located in the operating cabin or in a special place set apart for the purpose, and all switch-gear for pressures over medium pressure, unless located in generating stations or sub-stations, shall be of the totally enclosed iron-clad type. Provided that the use of bare isolating links and switches on overhead lines shall be permitted where in the opinion of an Inspector they may be used with safety.

(b) Motor starters, controllers and resistances shall be of the iron-clad type unless located in generating stations or sub-stations.

(c) Switches and fuses for the control of outside lighting circuits, if located outside an area set apart for the purpose, shall have no bare live metal exposed and shall be so mounted and protected that they cannot be interfered with by unauthorized persons.

In addition they shall be so located, constructed or arranged that the operator cannot, in any event, receive a shock due to leakage.

(xviii) All apparatus appertaining to a switch-board and requiring handling shall, so far as practicable, be so placed or arranged that the same may be operated from the working platform of the switch-board, and all measuring instruments and indicators connected therewith shall, so far as practicable, be so placed that the same may be observed from the working platform. If such apparatus be worked or observed from any other place, adequate precautions shall be taken to prevent danger.

(xix) At the working platform of every switch-board and in every switch-board passage-way, if there be bare conductors exposed or arranged to be exposed when live so that they may be touched, there shall be a clear passage with a firm and even floor accessible from both ends and of such width and height as are hereinafter specified. Adequate means of access, free from danger, shall be provided to every switch-board passage-way:

- (a) Passages constructed for low pressure and medium pressure switch-boards shall have a clear height of not less than 7 feet and a clear width, measured from bare conductor, of not less than 3 feet;
- (b) Passages constructed for high pressure and extra high pressure switch-boards, other than operating desks or panels working solely at low pressure, shall have a clear height of not less than 8 feet and a clear width, measured from bare conductor, of not less than 3 feet 6 inches;
- (c) Bare conductors shall not be exposed on both sides of the switch-board passage-way unless either (i) the clear width of the passage is in the case of low pressure and medium pressure not less than 4 feet 6 inches and in the case of high pressure and extra high pressure not less than 8 feet, in each case measured between bare conductors, or (ii) the conductors on one side are so guarded that they cannot be accidentally touched.

(xx) In every switch-board for high pressure or extra high pressure:

- (a) Every high pressure and extra high pressure conductor which is within the natural reach of a person standing on the working platform or in any switch-board passage-way shall be so placed or protected as adequately to prevent danger;
- (b) The metallic cases of all instruments working at high pressure or extra high pressure shall be either earthed or completely insulated;
- (c) All metal handles of high pressure and extra high pressure switches, and, where necessary to prevent danger, all metal gear for working the switches, shall be earthed;

(d) When work is about to be or is being done on any switch-board, then, unless the switch-board be otherwise so arranged as to secure that the work may be carried out without danger, either (i) the switch-board shall be made dead, or (ii) if the switch-board be so arranged that the conductors thereof can be made dead in sections and so separated by permanent or removable divisions or screens from all adjoining sections of which the conductors are live that work on any section may be carried out without danger, that section on which work has to be done shall be made dead.

(xxi) All parts of generators, motors, transformers or other similar apparatus at high pressure or extra high pressure which are within the natural reach of a person from any position in which any person employed may require to be shall be, so far as practicable, so protected as to prevent danger.

(xxii) Where energy of a high pressure or extra high pressure is transformed for use at a lower pressure, or energy is transformed up to above medium pressure, suitable provision shall be made to guard against danger by reason of the lower pressure system becoming accidentally charged above its normal pressure by leakage from or contact with the higher pressure system.

(xxiii) (a) All metallic sheaths, coverings, handles, joint boxes, switch-gear frames, instrument covers, switch and fuse covers and boxes and the frames and the bedplates of generators, transformers and motors, including portable motors, shall be efficiently earthed.

(b) In generating stations, sub-stations, underground workings and in such other places if ordered by the Chief Inspector, a complete system of earthing conductors provided with at least two earth plates shall be installed to which all earth connections shall be made and efficiently maintained.

(c) All joints in earth conductors shall be properly soldered and every earth conductor shall be soldered into a lug for its terminal connection unless a complete system embodying specially designed clamps is installed.

Earth wires, tubular earths and plates must be of suitable area depending on the apparatus to be protected as directed by the Chief Inspector.

(d) For underground workings the conductors of the earthing system shall have a conductivity at all parts and at all joints at least equal to 50 per cent. of that of the largest conductor used solely to supply the apparatus a part of which it is desired to earth. The minimum area of earth wire for underground workings shall be .022 of a square inch.

(e) This paragraph shall not apply to any system where the pressure does not exceed low pressure direct current or 125 volts alternating current except in cases provided for in paragraph (xiii) of this rule or where expressly otherwise ordered by an Inspector.

(xxiv) Adequate precautions shall be taken to prevent any conductor or apparatus from being accidentally or inadvertently electrically charged when persons are working thereon.

(xxv) Where necessary to prevent danger, insulating stands or screens shall be provided and kept permanently in position and shall be maintained in sound condition.

(xxvi) Portable insulating stands, screens, boots, gloves or other suitable means shall be provided and used when necessary to prevent danger and shall be periodically examined by an Inspector.

(xxvii) Adequate working space and means of access, free from danger, shall be provided for all apparatus that has to be worked or attended to by any person.

(xxviii) All those parts of premises in which apparatus is placed shall be adequately lighted.

(xxix) All conductors and apparatus exposed to the weather, wet, corrosion, undue heating or with inflammable surroundings or in an explosive atmosphere or used in any process or for any purpose other than for light or power shall be so constructed or protected, and such special precautions shall be taken, as may be necessary to prevent danger in view of such exposure or use.

(xxx) Every sub-station shall be substantially constructed and shall be so arranged that no person other than an authorized person can obtain access thereto or can interfere from outside with the apparatus or conductors therein and shall be provided with efficient means of ventilation and be kept dry.

(xxxi) Every underground sub-station not otherwise easily and safely accessible shall be provided with adequate means of access by a door with a staircase or ladder securely fixed and so placed that no live part of any switch-board or any bare conductor shall be within reach of a person thereon; provided that the means of access to such sub-station shall be a door-way and staircase

(a) if any person is regularly employed therein, otherwise than for inspection or cleaning; or

(b) if the sub-station is not of ample dimensions and there is therein either moving machinery, other than ventilating fans, or extra high pressure.

5. (i) Aerial lines for low pressure and medium pressure direct current and for low pressure alternating current shall be in conformity with the following requirements.

(ii) The interval between any two supports shall not exceed 200 feet, and where the line makes an angle at any such support the interval between that support and the supports on either side of it shall not exceed 150 feet; provided that in the case of built up and braced supports the interval between such supports shall be such as the Chief Inspector may approve.

(iii) Every support shall be such as the Chief Inspector may approve. Timber poles shall be of hard wood sawn square. The factor of safety shall be for timber poles at least eight and for iron and steel structures at least five taking the minimum wind pressure at 17 pounds per square foot. The factor of safety for stays shall be at least four based on the total sectional area of the aerial lines.

(iv) All aerial lines shall be attached to insulators and shall be so guarded that they cannot fall away from the support in the event of damage to the insulator or binding wire.

(v) No aerial line for the conveyance of energy at low pressure or with direct current up to the limit of medium pressure shall in any part thereof be at a less height from the ground than 18 feet, except with the written consent of the Chief Inspector, or be accessible to any person without the use of a ladder or other special appliance.

(vi) Where the supply is at medium pressure direct current or where the supply is alternating current at a pressure exceeding 125 volts between any conductor and earth, the Chief Inspector may require that one conductor consisting of one or two continuous earthed neutral wires shall be carried from pole to pole and the other conductor or conductors shall be arranged in such a manner that in the event of breakage of one of them it must make contact with the earth conductor or with wires connected thereto.

(vii) Aerial lines shall be of hard drawn copper not smaller than No. 12 S.W.G. for low and medium pressures and not smaller than No. 10 S.W.G. for high and extra high pressures or for any pressures where telegraph or telephone wires are to be crossed.

(viii) No aerial line for the conveyance of energy shall be erected to pass within four feet of any building or structure unless such line is insulated or otherwise suitably guarded.

(ix) Service lines from aerial lines shall be led as directly as possible to insulators firmly attached to some portion of the consumer's premises which is not accessible to any person without the use of a ladder or other special appliance. Every portion of a service line which is within seven feet of any building or structure shall be efficiently insulated or guarded.

(x) Where an aerial line crosses a path, street, road, railway, navigable river or canal, the angle between the general direction of such path, street, road, railway, river or canal and of the aerial line at their place of crossing shall not be less than 60 degrees and the spans and general designs shall be as may be ordered by the Chief Inspector.

(xi) Where an aerial line crosses or is, in the opinion of the Chief Inspector, in proximity to any other conductor or metal, such precautions shall be taken by the management or owner as the Chief Inspector may direct with a view to the prevention of contact or danger.

(xii) Aerial lines shall be protected by efficient lightning arresters and where ordered by an Inspector a lightning guard shall be fitted.

(xiii) Where the pressure exceeds 650 volts direct or 250 volts alternating, the following requirements shall also be met:

- (a) Each support on permanent lines shall be clearly and permanently marked with a number.
- (b) Danger notices of standard pattern as described in rule 4 (xvi) shall be fixed at every sixth pole on straight lines and on each pole at road crossings.
- (c) Provision shall be made to prevent climbing of the supports, as may be directed by an Inspector.
- (d) Where guys or stays are used, they shall be securely anchored and earthed.
- (e) A continuous earth wire shall, in cases where the Chief Inspector may so direct, be carried from support to support and be well connected to substantial earth plates at such intervals as the Chief Inspector may direct.
- (f) Wire cradles, earthing brackets or other devices shall be supplied and fitted by the management, as may be directed by an Inspector and designs of such devices shall be approved by the Chief Inspector before erection.
- (g) No extra high pressure conductor shall cross any building other than a sub-station, except with the written permission of an Inspector, or be accessible from any building, structure or tree without the use of a ladder or other special appliance.
- (h) Insulators used on high pressure and extra high pressure aerial lines shall be to the approval of the Chief Inspector.
- (i) No high pressure or extra high pressure conductor shall in any part thereof be at a less height from the ground than 20 feet, except with the written permission of the Chief Inspector.
- (j) Lines for low pressures shall not be carried on the same poles as lines for high or extra high pressures without permission in writing from the Chief Inspector.

(xiv) Where junctions are made between aerial lines and underground cables, reasonably efficient precautions shall be taken to obviate the effects of atmospheric electricity.

(xv) All aerial lines which cross other aerial lines, telegraph lines or telephone lines shall be efficiently guarded by the management at all points where they so cross with regard to such aerial lines and with regard to such other aerial lines, telegraph lines or telephone lines.

(xvi) Every aerial line, including its supports, all the structural parts, all electric appliances and all devices belonging to or connected with such aerial line shall be duly and efficiently supervised and maintained by the management as regards both electrical and mechanical condition.

(xvii) The management shall remove any aerial line upon ceasing to use it for the transmission of energy, if required so to do by the Chief Inspector.

(xviii) The Board may, subject to the approval of the Chief Secretary, order special requirements to be met in the construction, equipment and maintenance of aerial lines.

6. (i) Underground mains shall be continuously insulated to the satisfaction of an Inspector, and where they are attached to bridges or culverts shall be protected in such manner as may be directed by an Inspector.

(ii) The breaking up of streets, paths, roadways or other public places for the purpose of laying underground mains and connections thereto and the re-filling and re-making thereof shall be conducted by the management in such manner as may be required by the authority in charge of such streets, paths, roadways or public places.

(iii) All manholes, street-boxes, junction-boxes and appurtenances of underground mains shall be constructed and fitted to the satisfaction of an Inspector.

(iv) All metal casings containing underground mains shall be efficiently earthed and shall be so jointed and connected across all manholes, street-boxes, junction-boxes and other openings as to make good electrical connection throughout their whole length.

(v) In all other matters concerning underground mains any requirements of the Chief Inspector based upon the regulations for the time being in force in the United Kingdom shall be complied with.

(vi) Mains in underground workings shall be installed in conformity with the special rules issued under the Coal Mines Regulation Act 1911 (Great Britain) with such exceptions as may be allowed by the Chief Inspector.

7. (i) The wiring rules issued by the Institution of Electrical Engineers of the United Kingdom shall be followed, with such exceptions as the Chief Inspector may expressly allow, in all buildings, factories and workshops and similar circuits to which they are applicable.

(ii) Where and when ordered by an Inspector, a Wireman holding a certificate of competency as a Wireman issued under these rules shall be employed by the licensee or owner.

(iii) Incandescent lamps in series may not be used for lighting except where expressly sanctioned in writing by the Chief Inspector.

8. (i) (a) No person shall lay or place any electric supply line or apparatus within 30 feet of any telegraph line or telephone line or telegraph cable or telephone cable except with the written permission of the Chief Inspector and in conformity with such written instructions as the Chief Inspector may give. The Chief Inspector shall, before giving any such permission or instructions, consult the Government telegraph and telephone authorities.
- (b) The provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall not apply to telegraph or telephone lines or apparatus installed in buildings for the purpose of connection with a communication system.
- (ii) (a) After the date of coming into force of these rules no person shall lay or place any electric supply line conveying energy at high or extra high pressure until the route and design thereof shall have been submitted to and approved by the Board.
- (b) Such lines shall not be laid or placed parallel to or nearly parallel to any Government telegraph or telephone line which is within 600 feet by direct measurement of the proposed route of the electric supply line, provided that the distance of 600 feet specified in this paragraph may be increased or reduced by the Board after consideration of the pressure to be transmitted and all circumstances generally affecting each particular case.
9. (i) Installations shall be maintained in good and efficient working order and their standard of safety shall be so maintained as continuously to obviate danger, so far as is reasonably practicable.
- (ii) No person except an authorized person or a competent person acting under the immediate supervision of an authorized person shall undertake any work where technical knowledge or experience is required in order to avoid danger; and no person shall work alone in any case in which the Chief Inspector directs that he shall not. No person except an authorized person or a competent person acting under the immediate supervision of an authorized person shall undertake any repair, alteration, extension or cleaning of apparatus. Where work on or in connection with any apparatus is being or to be executed by a contractor for such work and the apparatus is under the control of the contractor, the contractor shall appoint the authorized person; where the apparatus is under the control of the management or the owner of the installation whereon the same is situate, such management or owner shall appoint the authorized person.
- (iii) All persons engaged on work in connection with repair or maintenance of any installation shall be adequately protected from danger, and the responsibility for affording such protection shall rest with the licensee or owner.

(iv) When persons are engaged on work on circuits controlled by switches not under their immediate supervision, such switches shall be locked in the off position until the work is finished.

10. (i) No apparatus shall be operated except under the control of authorized persons, unless exempt under section 38.

(ii) No installation shall be operated except in charge of the management, unless exempt under section 38.

(iii) Storage batteries shall be operated in such manner as the Chief Inspector may direct.

(iv) Sub-stations and transformer stations shall be operated in such manner as the Chief Inspector may direct.

11. Standardized instruments shall be used for the measurement of energy, both with regard to pressure and quantity, and all units of electrical measurement shall be in accordance with those adopted from time to time by the Electricity Commissioners of Great Britain, unless otherwise ordered by the Chief Secretary.

12. All measurements of dimensions and weights used or quoted in connection with the Enactment or these rules shall be expressed in British standard units.

13. So far as is reasonably practicable, the standards adopted by the British Engineering Standards Association for the design of apparatus shall be conformed to.

14. When in the opinion of the Chief Inspector it is necessary, in order to secure a reasonable degree of safety, to take precautions in the working or operation of, or to make additions or alterations to, any apparatus which are not prescribed by rule under the Enactment, the Chief Inspector shall issue orders in writing and such orders shall be carried into effect by the owner, management or authorized person to whom they may be addressed. Where, in such cases, the matters in question are provided for in the regulations issued by the Electricity Commissioners or the Home Office of Great Britain, the orders of the Chief Inspector shall be in accordance with such regulations so far as local conditions may, in his opinion, permit.

15. No person shall, except with the express permission of an Inspector, remove or damage any safety appliance fitted in connection with or for use with any apparatus, provided that an authorized person may without such permission make renewals or repairs of or to such safety appliance.

16. Every installation for electric smelting or for any other electric metallurgical process shall be controlled and operated in accordance with such orders as may be given in writing by the Chief Inspector.

17. (i) Every owner or licensee who shall alter or add to or (except in the case of portable apparatus) remove from one place to another any apparatus in respect whereof a certificate of inspection under section 16 or 17 of the Enactment shall have been issued within the six months last preceding such alteration, addition or removal shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing to an Inspector.

(ii) So soon as conveniently may be after receipt of the notice referred to in paragraph (i) an Inspector shall make or cause to be made an inspection and if the apparatus as altered, added to or removed satisfies the requirements of the Enactment and the rules thereunder he shall endorse on the certificate of inspection his assent to the alteration, addition or removal, as the case may be; if the apparatus as altered, added to or removed does not satisfy the requirements of the Enactment and the rules thereunder, the Inspector may by notice in writing posted at the place wherefrom the apparatus to which it relates is controlled or served upon the authorized person or management thereof require such further alterations, additions or removals of or to the said apparatus to be made as shall in the said notice be specified and may by the same notice or by a separate notice similarly posted or served prohibit the working or operation of the said apparatus or of any part thereof until the said further alterations, additions or removals shall have been completed. On the completion of any alterations, additions or removals required under this paragraph to be made an Inspector may endorse on the certificate of inspection his assent thereto.

(iii) No apparatus the working or operation whereof shall have been prohibited under paragraph (ii) shall be worked or operated until such assent as in that paragraph referred to shall have been endorsed on the certificate of inspection or the said prohibition shall have been withdrawn by writing under the hand of an Inspector.

18. When any part of a system is not in use, it shall be cut off from the source of energy and shall not be allowed to remain electrically charged.

19. The method of calculating the power of generators and motors shall be as the Chief Inspector may from time to time direct.

20. Instructions in the English, Malay, Chinese and Tamil languages and characters as to the proper mode of treating persons suffering from electric shock shall be affixed to all premises where energy is generated, transformed or used above low pressure and to such premises or classes of premises in which energy is generated, transformed or used at low pressure as the Chief Inspector may direct.

21. (i) Telephonic communication shall be established and maintained in efficient order by the owner or licensee, if and where ordered by the Chief Inspector, for the proper control of installations.

(ii) Where telephone wires are carried on the same poles as aerial lines for low and medium pressures they shall be carried at least two feet below the lowest live conductor, and the instruments used shall be protected with double pole knife switches, fuses and carbon gap lightning arresters. An insulating platform shall also be supplied for the operator.

(iii) Where telephone wires are carried on the same poles as aerial lines for high or extra high pressures they shall be carried at least four feet below the lowest live conductor and shall not be in any part at a height from the ground less than 20 feet.

The instruments used shall be fitted with insulated tube extensions to transmitter and receiver and insulating extensions to switch hook and magneto.

Such instruments shall be mounted in a separate wooden cabin, and all terminals and wiring shall be kept out of reach and protected. Each instrument shall be provided with a pole-operated double-pole high-tension switch, fuses and lightning arresters. An insulating platform shall also be supplied for the operator.

(iv) Telephone lines crossing power lines shall be guarded to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector. Where a telephone line runs parallel to any part of an aerial line at high or extra high pressure and within a distance equivalent to one and a half times the height of the highest wire plus any difference in the ground level between the two lines the telephone line must be guarded to the satisfaction of the Chief Inspector.

22. Such fire extinguishing appliances as may be ordered by the Chief Inspector shall be provided by the owner or licensee of any installation and be kept ready for use.

23. No licence shall be required under section 4 of the Enactment for using, working or operating or permitting to be used, worked or operated

- (a) any private installation which is contained entirely within land owned or lawfully occupied by the owner of the installation;
- (b) apparatus used exclusively for testing or research purposes;
- (c) portable apparatus operated solely for lighting or working public entertainments.

24. (i) Every licence for an installation as a public installation shall contain conditions relating to:

- (a) the method whereby energy is to be generated, transformed, transmitted and distributed and the type of apparatus to be employed and a prohibition of the use of any other method or type of apparatus without the express sanction of the Resident;
- (b) the voltage to be employed in generation, transmission and distribution, and the permissible variation thereof;
- (c) in the case of an alternating system, the periodicity and the permissible variation thereof;
- (d) a prohibition against the giving of undue preference to any person in respect of charges for the supply of energy.

(ii) Every licence for an installation as a private installation shall contain conditions relating to the matters specified under sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (i).

(iii) Licences for public installations shall be in such forms as the Resident may direct, and licences for private installations shall be in the form of schedule A hereto.

(iv) Fees payable on issue of licences for public installations shall be as follows:

(a) When the aggregate power installed does not exceed 50 kilowatts	$10
(b) When the aggregate power installed exceeds 50 but does not exceed 150 kilowatts	20
(c) When the aggregate power installed exceeds 150 but does not exceed 300 kilowatts	30
(d) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 300 but does not exceed 600 kilowatts	40
(e) When the aggregate power installed exceeds 600 but does not exceed 2,000 kilowatts	50
(f) When the aggregate power installed exceeds 2,000 kilowatts	60

(v) Fees payable on issue of licences for private installations shall be at the rate of one-half of those prescribed in paragraph (iv).

25. (i) Certificates of inspection on completion of a new installation under section 16 of the Enactment shall be in the form of schedule B hereto.

(ii) Certificates of inspection of an installation or apparatus under section 17 of the Enactment shall be in the form of schedule C hereto.

(iii) Certificates of competency for Electrical Engineers, Chargemen and Wiremen shall be in the form of schedules D (i), D (ii) and D (iii) hereto, respectively.

26. (i) A third grade Electrical Engineer shall be at least 21 years of age and shall possess a certificate of competency as third grade Electrical Engineer issued to him in the Federated Malay States after he has satisfied a Board of Examiners that he has complied with the following conditions and possesses the following qualifications:

- (a) He must have served an apprenticeship in, or have worked for at least three years in a workshop or factory where the making or repairing of apparatus has been carried out or have equivalent experience;
- (b) He must be able to describe the principal types of apparatus in up-to-date use on low and medium pressures and must shew knowledge of their construction, erection, testing, running, maintenance and repair;

(c) He must shew knowledge of the principles governing the operation and testing while in motion of apparatus for low and medium pressures;

(d) He must speak English and write it legibly and be able to make dimensioned sketches of parts of apparatus.

(ii) A second grade Electrical Engineer shall be at least 23 years of age and shall possess a certificate of competency as second grade Electrical Engineer issued to him in the Federated Malay States after he has satisfied a Board of Examiners that he possesses all the qualifications referred to in paragraph (i) of this rule and must produce written evidence that he has been in charge of apparatus for at least one year while in possession of such qualifications.

(iii) A first grade Electrical Engineer shall be at least 25 years of age and shall possess a certificate of competency as a first grade Electrical Engineer issued to him in the Federated Malay States after he has satisfied a Board of Examiners that he has complied with the following conditions and possesses the following qualifications:

(a) He must possess all the qualifications referred to in paragraph (i) of this rule and must produce written evidence that he has been in charge of apparatus for at least three years while in possession of such qualifications. He must further be able to describe the principal types of apparatus in up-to-date use on high and extra high pressures and must shew knowledge of their construction, erection, testing, running, maintenance and repair;

(b) He must be able to make simple calculations for distributing mains and wiring and must have a good knowledge of those portions of the Electricity Enactment and of the rules thereunder which apply to his work, particularly those which refer to ensuring the safety of persons operating apparatus and of the general public.

(iv) An Engineer may be registered as an extra first grade Electrical Engineer if he is at least 25 years of age and proves to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners that he has been regularly trained as an Electrical Engineer, both in theory and practice, and has had at least five years subsequent employment in responsible positions as an Electrical Engineer. No fee shall be charged for registration under this paragraph and an Engineer who is registered as an extra first grade Electrical Engineer shall be deemed competent to undertake the duties of a first grade Electrical Engineer under rule 28.

(v) The examination for a certificate of competency as a first grade Electrical Engineer may be conducted partly by written answers to questions set and partly viva voce. The examination for certificates of competency as second and third grade Electrical Engineers will be entirely viva voce.

(vi) The Board of Examiners may, at its discretion, issue certificates of competency to Electrical Engineers without examination.

(vii) (a) A candidate for a certificate of competency as second grade Chargeman shall be at least 18 years of age and prove that he has served in attendance on apparatus for a period of not less than two years;

(b) He must understand the uses of the various parts of such apparatus as is in the opinion of the examiners likely to come under his charge and must show sufficient knowledge to enable him to operate it when running and if desired by the examiners he shall give practical demonstration of this knowledge.

(viii) (a) A candidate for a certificate of competency as first grade Chargeman must possess a second grade Chargeman's certificate and prove that he has been in charge of apparatus for a period of not less than one year whilst holding a second grade Chargeman's certificate, or he must satisfy the examiners that his experience is such that they may reasonably dispense with the foregoing requirement;

(b) He must satisfy the examiners that he is capable of taking charge of apparatus when in operation and give practical demonstration of this knowledge; and if he holds a second grade Chargeman's certificate he must also satisfy the examiners that he has made satisfactory progress in his knowledge of apparatus since obtaining such certificate.

(ix) A candidate for a certificate of competency as Wireman must satisfy the examiners that he has practical knowledge and experience of wiring.

(x) Every candidate for a certificate of competency shall produce satisfactory references as to character and, if required by the examiners, undergo a medical examination.

(xi) Any candidate for examination who fails for the third time to pass the examination for which he has presented himself shall not again present himself for examination, unless the examiners, taking into consideration the circumstances of any particular case, allow a further trial.

(xii) The Board of Examiners may in their discretion restrict the certificate of competency of any Electrical Engineer or Chargeman or Wireman to any particular type of apparatus; but the holder of such a restricted certificate may after the lapse of twelve months from the date of such restricted certificate apply to be examined for removal of the restriction.

(xiii) For the purpose of holding the examinations referred to in these rules a Board of Examiners shall be nominated by the Chief Secretary, and the members shall hold office for so long as the Chief Secretary may direct.

(xiv) Certificates of competency shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of Examiners.

27. (i) Fees according to the following scale shall be charged for examinations under these rules:

(a) Examination for certificate of competency as third grade Electrical Engineer	$15
(b) Examination for certificate of competency as second grade Electrical Engineer	20
(c) Examination for certificate of competency as first grade Electrical Engineer	25
(d) Re-examination for removal of restriction on certificate of competency of any Electrical Engineer	5
(e) Examination for certificate of competency as second grade Chargeman	6
(f) Examination for certificate of competency as first grade Chargeman	10
(g) Re-examination for removal of restriction on certificate of competency of any Chargeman or Wireman	2
(h) Examination for certificate of competency as Wireman	4

(ii) Where certificates of competency have been issued without examination under rule 26 (vi) no fees shall be charged.

(iii) Examination fees shall be paid in advance, and if a candidate fails in his examination no part of his fee shall be returned to him.

(iv) All fees shall be paid into a Government Treasury and credited to the public revenue.

28. (i) The qualifications to be possessed by the management in charge of installations under rule 10 (ii) shall not be inferior to those following:

A.—Where the installation includes a generating station:

(a) Where the aggregate power installed does not exceed 35 kilowatts	2nd grade Chargeman
(b) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 35 but does not exceed 70 kilowatts	1st grade Chargeman
(c) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 70 but does not exceed 150 kilowatts	1st grade Chargeman with a 2nd grade supervising Electrical Engineer
(d) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 150 but does not exceed 250 kilowatts at low or medium pressures	3rd grade Electrical Engineer

- (e) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 150 but does not exceed 250 kilowatts at high or extra high pressure ... 2nd grade Electrical Engineer
- (f) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 250 but does not exceed 500 kilowatts ... 2nd grade Electrical Engineer with a supervising 1st grade Electrical Engineer
- (g) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 500 kilowatts ... 1st grade Electrical Engineer

B.—Where the installation does not include a generating station:

- (a) Where the aggregate power installed does not exceed 70 kilowatts or 85 horse-power ... 2nd grade Chargeman
- (b) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 70 kilowatts or 85 horse-power but does not exceed 150 kilowatts or 175 horse-power ... 1st grade Chargeman
- (c) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 150 kilowatts or 175 horse-power but does not exceed 250 kilowatts or 300 horse-power ... 1st grade Chargeman with a supervising Electrical Engineer of any grade
- (d) Where the aggregate power installed exceeds 250 kilowatts or 300 horse-power ... 3rd grade Electrical Engineer

For installations included under sub-paragraphs (c) and (d) where the pressure exceeds medium pressure the appointment of the Electrical Engineer shall be subject to approval in writing previously obtained from an Inspector.

(ii) In the case of a private installation where current is transmitted for use more than three miles from the generating station, and in other cases where the Chief Inspector so directs, the receiving and consuming apparatus shall be considered as separate installations for the purposes of this rule.

(iii) A supervising Electrical Engineer shall pay weekly visits, at least, to the installation and shall record his visits and instructions given to the resident Engineer or Chargeman in a book open to inspection at all times and the Chief Inspector may, in his discretion, limit the number of installations which may be supervised by any one Engineer.

(iv) Notwithstanding paragraphs (A) and (B) of this rule installations using low pressure direct current and not exceeding five kilowatts in capacity may be in charge of an authorized person appointed by the owner provided such person has obtained a certificate under the hand of an Inspector that he is competent to operate such installation.

(v) On an installation the authorized persons controlling the operation of the following classes of apparatus shall possess the following qualifications:

- | | |
|--|--|
| (a) Switch-boards controlling, generating and converting plant (on each shift) ... | Chargeman of grade ordered by Inspector |
| (b) Switch-boards with exposed bare conductors where pressure is above low pressure | Chargeman of grade ordered by Inspector |
| (c) Sub-stations | Chargeman of grade ordered by Inspector |
| (d) Winders for underground working (on each shift)... | Chargeman of grade ordered by Inspector |
| (e) Dredges | 1st grade Chargeman in residence near dredge or one person on each shift who has obtained a certificate under the hand of an Inspector that he is a competent operator |
| (f) Motors for pressures above medium pressures (on each shift) | Authorized person of grade ordered by an Inspector |

(vi) In regard to any installation the Chief Inspector may give directions for an additional number of authorized persons to be employed and the licensee or owner shall comply with such directions.

29. When any installation or apparatus is operated by two or more shifts the authorized persons and their assistants going off shift shall not leave their stations until relieved by the authorized persons and their assistants coming on shift.

30. (i) The licensee or owner of every installation shall, within ten days of the placing of any person in charge of an installation, inform an Inspector in writing of the name and qualifications of such person.

(ii) He shall also keep a list of all authorized persons in his employ and their duties and shall produce it when required to do so by an Inspector.

31. The Resident may, after an enquiry by the Board under the Enactment or whenever on consideration of a judgment of any Court it appears to him expedient so to do, suspend for such period as he may think fit or revoke the certificate of competency of any Electrical Engineer, Chargeman or Wireman issued under these rules, and no person whose certificate of competency shall have been suspended or revoked shall during the period of such suspension or revocation take charge or be in charge of any installation or apparatus.

32. Every certificate of inspection and certificate of competency issued under these rules shall, so long as it remains in force, be produced whenever called for by a Court or by the Board, the Chief Inspector or an Inspector.

33. Fees shall be paid for inspection of installations and apparatus under sections 16 and 17 of the Enactment at the following rates:

(i) For private installations:

(a) When the maximum output or power received does not exceed 1 kilowatt at a voltage exceeding 250 or does not exceed 10 kilowatts at a voltage not exceeding 250

Inspection on completion ... $5

Six-monthly inspection ... 5

(b) When the maximum output or power received exceeds 1 kilowatt at a voltage exceeding 250 or 10 kilowatts at a voltage not exceeding 250 but does not exceed 150 kilowatts

Inspection on completion ... $20

Six-monthly inspection ... 15

(c) When the maximum output or power received exceeds 150 but does not exceed 300 kilowatts

Inspection on completion ... $40

Six-monthly inspection ... 20

(d) When the maximum output or power received exceeds 300 kilowatts but does not exceed 600 kilowatts

Inspection on completion ... $50

Six-monthly inspection ... 25

(e) Where the maximum output or power received exceeds 600 kilowatts but does not exceed 2,000 kilowatts

Inspection on completion ... $60

Six-monthly inspection ... 30

24

(f) Where the maximum output or power received exceeds 2,000 kilowatts

Inspection on completion	...	$80
Six-monthly inspection	...	40

Provided that the fees for inspection of such private installations as are by these rules permitted to be used, worked or operated without licence shall be half those hereinbefore prescribed.

(ii) For public installations the fees shall be double those prescribed by paragraph (i) of this rule.

(iii) In the case of private installations where the distance between the generating station and the most distant point supplied exceeds three miles the fees shall be doubled.

34. The Resident may by writing under his hand prohibit, either generally or in any specified locality, the use of any apparatus which is, in his opinion, causing or likely to cause nuisance to the public; no person shall contravene any prohibition issued or published under this rule.

35. No apparatus shall in any State be operated or used under conditions which are in the opinion of the Health Officer of such State dangerous to the health of Electrical Engineers, Chargemen or other persons in attendance thereon or the public, and such precautions shall be taken as the Chief Inspector may direct to secure the due observance of this rule.

36. Any person who shall hire out or transfer permanently or temporarily any apparatus to any other person shall within one month after such hiring out or transfer give notice thereof in writing to an Inspector.

37. (i) A summons to an assessor under section 30 of the Enactment may be in the form of schedule E (i) hereto; a summons to a witness under section 31 of the Enactment may be in the form of schedule E (ii) hereto.

(ii) Enquiries by the Board under the provisions of the Enactment may be held at any place that the Board may elect, and the evidence may be taken in any language.

38. Notices of inspection may be in the form of schedule F (i) or F (ii) hereto, as the case may require, and may be served either personally upon the person to whom they are addressed or by being posted to him under registered cover or by being affixed conspicuously to the building wherefrom the installation to be inspected is controlled.

39. Records shall be kept as follows:

(i) By every licensee of a public installation:

- (a) Log of daily output of energy and of energy sold per month;
- (b) Record of break-downs and of accidents, fatal and otherwise.

25

(ii) By the Board, a record of all enquiries held under the Enactment and of the evidence taken thereat; for purposes of reference the enquiries shall be numbered in the order in which they are held in each year.

(iii) By the Chief Inspector

- (a) A record of all written orders and instructions issued by him; these shall be numbered in the order of their issue in each year.
- (b) A record of all accidents in connection with apparatus; these shall be numbered in the order of their occurrence in each year.
- (c) A record of all certificates of competency issued under these rules, arranged according to classes and grades and numbered in the order of their issue, with the date of issue.

(iv) By each Inspector

- (a) A list of all installations under his inspection wherein shall be recorded the number, date and nature of every certificate of inspection having reference to any such installation, the name of the owner or licensee entered in such certificate, the name of the Electrical Engineer or Chargeman in charge of such installation, the locality thereof, the dates of all inspections thereof and notes of reference to any special order by the Chief Inspector. This list shall be indexed under the number of the certificate of inspection and under the name of the licensee, if any, or otherwise of the owner.
- (b) A list of the Electrical Engineers, Chargemen and Wiremen employed in installations under his inspection, indexed under the number and class of the certificate of competency held, under the name of the Electrical Engineer, Chargeman or Wireman, under the name of the licensee, if any, or otherwise of the owner and under the number of the certificate of inspection.
- (c) A record of all notices and written orders issued by him, numbered in the order of their issue in each year.
- (d) An accurate account of all fees collected by him and of their disposal.

40. (i) All fees payable under the Enactment and these rules shall be paid in advance.

(ii) Payment thereof shall be made to an Inspector.

41. (i) Failure to comply with rule 22 or 32 shall be punishable by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(ii) Failure to comply with rule 3 (iii), 3 (iv), 3 (v), 7, 16, 17, 18, 29, 30, 35 or 36 shall be punishable by fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars.

(iii) Failure to comply with rule 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 14, 15, 21 or 34 shall be punishable by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

"THE ELECTRICITY ENACTMENT, 1925."

EXEMPTIONS.

No. 6948.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 38 of "The Electricity Enactment, 1925," the Chief Secretary to Government hereby exempts:

1. From all provisions of the Enactment, all direct current installations using a pressure not exceeding 150 volts and situate entirely on the owners own property or premises and employed for any of the following purposes:

- (a) Private house or office lighting.
- (b) Dredge lighting.
- (c) Magnetic separating plant.
- (d) Electro plating apparatus.

2. From all provisions of the said Enactment which refer to licensing and the payment of fees, any installations owned by the Government.

3. From all provisions of the said Enactment which refer to the provision of management or authorised persons, all consumers' private installations receiving energy from a public installation or from a Government public installation for use for house lighting or other domestic purposes.

4. From all provisions of the said Enactment which refer to inspections, except as specially provided for in the public installation licence, or under section 37 (ii) all consumers' private installations receiving energy from a public installation or from a Government public installation for use for house lighting or other domestic purposes.

“THE ELECTRICITY ENACTMENT, 1925.”

RULES FOR GOVERNMENT SUPPLIES.

No. 6949.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 37 (ii) of “The Electricity Enactment, 1925,” the Chief Secretary to Government hereby makes the following rules:

1. With particular reference to these rules “Electrical Engineer” means the person duly appointed by the Board for the executive charge of any particular electrical undertaking.

2. APPLICATIONS FOR SUPPLY.—Applications for supply shall be made by the owner or by the occupier of premises on the form A in the first schedule, which may be obtained from the office of the Electrical Engineer.

Applications for supply to motors, cooking and other special apparatus will be considered on their merits, and the Electrical Engineer may make such conditions in regard to type of apparatus and hours of use as he considers necessary to ensure a steady voltage on the mains, and may require separate circuits to be run to such apparatus from the main fuse. The Electrical Engineer shall have power to refuse supply where, in his opinion, such refusal is necessary.

3. NOTICE TO DISCONTINUE.—The consumer shall give at least 48 hours notice in writing to the Electrical Engineer of his desire to be disconnected, and shall be responsible for any electricity consumed on the premises until such notice has expired.

4. SERVICE LINES.—Service lines will be run from any Government main free in any public thoroughfare and on the consumer's property to any building within 50 yards of an overhead or 50 feet of an underground distributing main, but for service lines crossing other private property and for distances exceeding the above, special terms must be arranged.

5. POSITION OF METERS.—The Electrical Engineer or his representative will determine the position where the main shall enter the premises and also the position of the main cut-outs, meters, etc. No alteration shall be made in such position without the written authority of the Electrical Engineer.

6. CONSUMER RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGE.—The capacity of the Government service wires, fuses, meters, etc., will be so regulated as to carry permanently the maximum current required by the apparatus actually installed when connected up.

Should the consumer at any time, without consent first obtained in writing, connect any additional apparatus and by so doing cause damage to the Government apparatus by excess of current, the consumer shall be liable for the expense of making good damage that in the opinion of the Electrical Engineer is attributable to action on the part of the consumer.

7. NOTICE re EXTENSIONS.—Consumers wishing to extend their wiring or to add to the current consuming devices connected thereto shall give at least 48 hours notice on the form B in the first schedule which may be obtained from the Electrical Engineer. Unauthorized extensions may be disconnected by the Electrical Engineer without notice.

8. CONSUMPTION OF ENERGY TO BE DETERMINED BY METER OR BY OTHER METHODS.—(i) Consumption of energy shall be determined by meters provided by the Board, or by such other methods as the Resident on the advice of the Board in special cases may agree to. Readings of meters shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of energy consumed.

Provided that, should the supply of meters at any time be not equal to the demand, consumers may be charged on the basis of their average monthly consumption during the previous six months. In the case of new consumers or of change of tenants a meter will be installed until an average is obtained.

And provided further that the Resident may in special cases sanction a fixed monthly charge in place of payment at the above rates by meter and may also grant special reduced rates in particular cases in which such a course appears to him to be to the interest of the Government or of the public.

(ii) The minimum charge to any consumer with a metered supply shall be $2 for a period of one calendar month or proportionately for other periods.

For the purposes of this rule the term "Consumer" shall be understood to mean each Government department, company or individual separately charged for a supply of electricity irrespective of the number of meters installed provided:

- (a) that occupation of more than one distinct office or premises shall constitute any Government department, company or individual a separate consumer in respect of each such office or premises.
- (b) that in the case where separate meters are installed for measurement of power supplied at reduced rates in addition to a supply at lighting rates any Government department, company or individual shall be considered a separate consumer in respect of each such supply.

(iii) All charges to be made will be at the rates specified in the third schedule hereto. Such rates may be revised and altered from time to time by the Resident on the advice of the Board.

9. ACCURACY OF METERS.—Should a consumer suspect that his meter is not registering correctly he may, on request to the Electrical Engineer given in writing, have the meter tested. Such test shall be made within 48 hours of receipt of the request by the Electrical Engineer and a fee of $5 shall accompany each request. If the inaccuracy of the meter is found to be more than three per cent., the fee shall be refunded and the consumer's account adjusted; if the meter is found to be registering less than three per cent. fast no portion of the fee shall be refunded. No test of any meter shall be made for a period prior to the date of rendering a consumer's previous account.

10. APPARATUS OUT OF ORDER.—If the consumer suspects that there is any leakage of current in his wiring he should notify the Electrical Engineer immediately, in the meantime cutting off the supply at the main switch. The Electrical Engineer is authorized to disconnect any apparatus without notice which in his opinion is defective or dangerous.

11. RIGHT OF ENTRY.—The Electrical Engineer or his representative shall have the right of entry at reasonable times to any premises for the purposes of testing or inspection.

12. COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS.—(i) Bills will be rendered to the consumer by the Sanitary Board monthly and must be paid within seven days of presentation. In default of payment the supply may be cut off without further notice.

(ii) In every case where the Electrical Engineer shall have cut off from an installation the supply of electricity for default in the payment of any moneys accrued due under the provisions of these rules a charge of $2 shall be made for reconnection of such installation with the service main, and this charge shall be payable in advance.

(iii) Only receipts on the Government's printed form shall be considered valid.

(iv) Should the meter cease to register, the consumer shall be required to pay for the energy consumed under such circumstances a sum based on the average daily consumption in the previous three months.

13. APPROVED CONTRACTORS.—Only contractors approved by the Board shall be allowed to carry out wiring of consumers' premises and every such contractor shall employ a certificated wireman in direct and continuous charge of such wiring. A register of such contractors will be kept at the Electrical Engineer's Office and the Board may if dissatisfied with the work or conduct of a contractor or on consideration of a judgment of any Court delete the name of the contractor from the register and no contractor whose name shall have been deleted shall be allowed to carry out the wiring of consumers' premises.

14. WIRING REGULATIONS.—The following rules shall govern the wiring in the consumers' premises:

(i) Electrical energy will be supplied on the systems and at the pressures and frequencies stated in the second schedule hereto.

(ii) For two-wire services a double pole main switch or two single pole linked switches and two single pole cut-outs shall be supplied and fixed by the consumer in an accessible position as near as possible to the Board's cut-outs.

- (iii) Loop and shunt wires for the meters if required shall be provided by the consumer.
- (iv) On three-wire systems, where current in excess of fifteen amperes or such other maximum as may be approved by the Electrical Engineer is required, the wiring shall be divided into two separate balanced circuits.

- (v) On four-wire alternating current systems where current in excess of fifteen amperes or such other maximum as may be approved by the Electrical Engineer is required, the wiring shall be divided into three separate balanced circuits.

Each circuit in paragraphs (iv) and (v) shall be controlled as in paragraph (ii) by main switches and fuses.

- (vi) Where consumer's wiring is divided as in (iv) and (v) into two or more circuits, the main cut-outs and switches shall be so placed or protected that only those connected to one circuit can be handled at one time.
- (vii) Sub-circuits shall be branched off main circuits at distribution boxes provided with fuses of an approved pattern on each pole: no sub-circuit shall carry more than 600 watts. For purposes of calculating the lay out of circuits when wiring a building, plug connections shall be counted at 60 watts each.
- (viii) All single pole switches shall be on the same pole throughout any circuit. The main to which the switches are connected shall be marked "switch wire" or be otherwise clearly indicated and shall be connected to the live wire of the supply.
- (ix) Conductors of greater cross section than .003 square inches shall be stranded; no single wire of cross section less than .0015 square inches shall be used, but twin conductors each of area not less than .001 square inches may be used.
The minimum sectional area of each conductor in any flexible cord shall be .001 square inches.
The maximum current allowed by the Institution of Electrical Engineers for each size of conductor must not be exceeded in any case.
- (x) Joints in wiring shall be avoided as far as possible; where necessary they shall be made in porcelain fittings providing for mechanical connection and electrical protection for sizes up to .003 square inches area, for larger sizes properly sweated and insulated joints or mechanical joints of a type approved by the Electrical Engineer shall be made.
- (xi) Contractors shall submit samples of the wire to be used to the Electrical Engineer for approval. The insulation resistance shall not be less than 600 megohms per mile.

- (xii) All conductors where liable to damage must be protected by hard wood casing finished inside with two coats of insulating varnish, or by metallic tubes. Where casing is used the capping shall be secured by screws fixed on the outer edges only, where metallic tubing is used the out and return wires shall be placed in the same tube. All wires within seven feet of the floor shall be run in tubing or casing, wires passing through floors, partitions, etc., shall be enclosed in porcelain fibre or metallic tubing, when in positions open to periodical inspections and when not exposed to injury the insulated conductors may be supported on porcelain cleats in such a manner as to secure permanent spacing of the conductors from any part of the building and from each other.

Flexibles supported on cleats will not be allowed.

No unarmoured conductor shall be supported on any metal fastening and no bare conductors shall be used without previous permission obtained in writing from the Electrical Engineer. The use of tubing and casing should be avoided as far as possible; tubing if used must be properly earthed and electrically continuous and the Electrical Engineer may require a higher grade of wire for use with tubing than specified in paragraph (xi).

Special systems of wiring may be used if approved previously in writing by the Electrical Engineer.

The above stipulations apply only to inside wiring under ordinary conditions.

Wiring of a temporary nature, outside wiring, and wiring for special conditions will only be connected up if carried out to the approval of the Electrical Engineer.

- (xiii) Ceiling roses shall be so constructed that the conductors depending from them are securely supported independently of the terminals.

When considered necessary by the Electrical Engineer pendent fittings shall be supported independently of the flexible cord.

- (xiv) All plugs shall be controlled by separate switches.

- (xv) Lamp holders shall be of approved designs: where large lamps are used the conductors near the lamp terminals shall be spaced apart by the use of special cord grips.

- (xvi) The covers of switches and cut-outs shall be of porcelain or of rigid metal insulated from live parts.

Any metal parts which require to be touched by the hand in using the switch shall be properly insulated, or supported rigidly clear of live metal.

- (xvii) No switches may be placed in bathrooms. Other apparatus in bathrooms must be so placed as to be out of reach.
- (xviii) The contractor may be required to submit samples of any wiring accessories proposed to be used and none but those approved by the Electrical Engineer shall be used.
- (xix) Wiring to motors shall either be run in metallic tubing containing all the wires of the circuits or shall be protected from mechanical damage by some other method approved by the Electrical Engineer. Main switches, cut-outs, starters and regulators shall be iron-clad. Motor frames and all metallic non-current carrying parts shall be efficiently earthed.
- (xx) INSPECTION AND TESTING.—On receipt of notice on the form C in the first schedule of the completion of any consumer's wiring or extensions to existing wiring, the Electrical Engineer shall test the wiring at a potential of 500 volts in the presence of the contractor. The insulation resistance to earth with all switches, fuses, lamps, etc., connected shall not be less in megohms than 25 divided by the number of points installed for the whole of the wiring or any circuit or sub-circuit.
- The resistance between poles with lamps out and switches closed shall be not less, in megohms, than 25 divided by the number of points.
- The insulation resistance to earth of any motor shall be at least one megohm.
- Consumer's wiring shall not be connected to the supply unless these tests shall have been passed to the satisfaction of the Electrical Engineer.
- (xxi) SECOND AND FURTHER TESTS.—For a first test of any consumer's wiring no fee shall be charged, a fee of $10 may be charged for all subsequent tests and will be payable in advance by the wiring contractor. Tests of extensions will be carried out under similar conditions.
- (xxii) In all particulars not specified in these regulations and where not inconsistent with these regulations wiring contractors shall conform to the wiring rules of the Institution of Electrical Engineers.

15. TELEPHONE WIRING, ETC.—SPECIAL PRECAUTIONS.—The following additional regulations will be enforced where wiring is to be installed in buildings already wired for telephones, telegraphs or other weak current carrying circuits:

- (i) The weak current carrying wiring must be crossed at right angles and where the insulated lighting or power conductors are supported on porcelain cleats or otherwise exposed with a clear air space of at least one inch.

- (ii) Where it is necessary that power wiring shall run parallel with telephone or telegraph wiring the distance between such wiring shall be at least twelve inches.

(iii) No connection shall be made to any earth connections in use for weak current carrying circuits.
16. POWER TO PROSECUTE.—Prosecutions for breach of any rules hereunder which apply to supplies from Government Public Installations may be instituted by or at the instance of an Electrical Engineer as defined in rule 1.

"THE EXPLOSIVES ENACTMENT, 1904."

No. 6956.—In exercise of the powers in them severally vested by section 5 of "The Explosives Enactment, 1904," the Residents of Perak, Selangor, Negri Sembilan and Pahang, each in respect of the State whereof he is Resident, with the approval of the Chief Secretary to Government, hereby amend the Explosives Rules published as Notification No. 3087 in the Federated Malay States Government Gazette of the 1st June, 1923, by rescinding rule 58 and substituting the following:

"58. (i) An explosive shall not be imported, exported or removed from place to place except under and in accordance with a licence in that behalf in the form C hereto annexed issued by a licensing officer.

(ii) The licensing officer may before the issue of a licence for the import of any explosive of Class VII require the production of a sample of the fireworks to be imported, and may refuse a licence to import if he considers the import of such fireworks undesirable by reason of the power of the explosive or of noise likely to be caused by the explosion thereof.

(iii) Before a licence for the importation of any explosive of Class VII is issued, the licensing officer may require the importer to deposit with him two specimens of the explosive to be imported. The licensing officer shall send one of such specimens together with a copy of the licence to the Superintendent of Customs at the port or place of importation who shall compare the specimen with the explosive contained in the consignment and then return the copy of the licence and the specimen to the licensing officer.

(iv) No explosive shall be imported under the said licence that does not conform with the specimen deposited, and in all cases where the Superintendent of Customs discovers any difference he shall not release the consignment and shall render a report to the licensing officer." [G. 1375/25.]

"THE INVENTIONS ENACTMENT, 1914."

NOTICES OF ACCEPTANCE OF COMPLETE SPECIFICATIONS (SECTION 9).

"THE LAND ENACTMENT, 1911."

THE LAND RULES, 1920.

No. 6968.—In exercise of the powers in them severally vested by section 18 of "The Land Enactment, 1911," the Residents of Perak, Selangor, Negri Sembilan and Pahang, each in respect of the State whereof he is Resident, with the approval of the Chief Secretary to Government, hereby rescind the whole of the first paragraph of Land Rule 13 published as Notification No. 1940 in the Supplement to the Gazette of 13th May, 1920, and substitute therefor the following paragraph:

The rates of premium and quit-rent set out in the following table will ordinarily be the minimum rates charged upon all lands alienated after the coming into force of these rules; but nothing herein contained shall preclude the Resident from at any time and without notice given altering these rates by rule under the Enactment, or shall preclude the Resident from granting special rates in cases where the interests of the State may appear to him to so require, or, from fixing in the case of licences for temporary occupation such rates of rent as to him shall in each particular case seem fit whether the same be higher or lower than the rates prescribed under C (i) infra, or shall preclude the Resident from causing any State lands whatsoever to be alienated by auction. [G. 1943/24.]

No. 6969.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 19 (i) of "The Land Enactment, 1911," Resident of Perak has appointed Raja Arif Shah bin Harun to be an Assistant Collector in and for the State of Perak, with effect from the 1st October, 1925. [Pk. 4132/25.]

No. 6970.—In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 19 (i) of "The Land Enactment, 1911," Resident of Negri Sembilan has appointed Inche Abdul Aziz bin Mohamed Khamis to be an Assistant Collector in and for the Seremban district with effect from the 19th October, 1925. [N.S. 2629/25.]

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION.

No. 6971.—Whereas by notices of demand, served or published during the months of April to August, 1925, the under-mentioned were required to pay at Telok Anson Land Office, the sums of money enumerated hereunder being arrears and costs recoverable under "The Land Enactment, 1911," and whereas the said sums have not been paid and cannot be recovered in the manner prescribed by section 70 of the said Enactment:

Notice is hereby given that, at the expiration of four months from the date of this notice, I shall cancel all applications for the land hereunder described (being the land in respect of which the arrears are due), and all persons are hereby warned against disposing of the land so described by sale, gift, or otherwise, and against receiving the same by purchase, gift, or otherwise.

No. 7174.—SANITARY BOARD, KLANG.—

Minutes of a meeting of the Klang Sanitary Board held on Tuesday, 13th October, 1925.

PRESENT: The Chairman (Mr. F. W. Douglas), the Senior Executive Engineer (Mr. W. H. Morgan), the Medical Officer (Dr. J. G. Castellain), the Health Officer (Dr. M. J. Graham), Messrs. H. A. Wootton, C. G. Brown, Lim Hin Kiong, Kow Tiam Chuan and K. A. Vaner and Dr. W. Ansley-Young.

ABSENT: The Harbour Master (Lt.-Comm. J. T. B. Notley, R.N.), Dato Stia di Raja (Inche Abdul Razak, J.P., I.S.O.), and the Assistant Commissioner of Police (Mr. J. D. Hussey).

1. The following questions, notice of which had been given, are asked by the unofficials :

- That it is desirable that copies of returns, accounts, reports, etc., be submitted to all unofficial members of the Board seven days before the regular meeting, to enable them to examine the same at their leisure and thereby be in a better position to comment on them at the meetings.
- That a pure water supply is of paramount importance to the town and, in view of the unsightly quality of the present supply, the question of efficient filtration is regarded as an urgent necessity and definite information concerning this matter is requested.
- That it would be in the interests of the community to augment the unofficial membership of the Board by the addition of a Planter member and a Malay member.

(a) The Chairman informs the Board that returns, etc., will be submitted as early as possible after the close of the previous month. But that it will not be possible to submit the Health Officer's report till the meeting following. It is decided also to ask the Executive Engineer for monthly progress reports showing amounts spent on works within the Sanitary Board areas.

(b) The Executive Engineer reports that there is every possibility of a vote being provided in 1926 for the extension of the main and the provision of a floating arm to Subang Reservoir. Mr. Vaner is of opinion that nothing next to filtration will improve the supply. The Board decides to ask the Executive Engineer to submit a report as to the possibility of providing filter beds.

(c) The Board decides to ask Government for an unofficial Malay member in view of the large number of Malay small holders within the Klang Sanitary Board areas but it is agreed that there is no justification for appointing a Planting member.

2. The Chairman's letter embodying the financial statement prepared by the sub-committee and adopted by the Board having been circulated is taken as read. The unofficial members consider it is immaterial whether the Board is considered a Municipality provided that it is given control of its revenue and expenditure.

3. The new scheme of work of the Sanitary staff by the Health Officer is approved by the Board.

4. The following questions by Mr. Graham-Brown, due notice of which had been given, are discussed at length :

- That in the opinion of this Board it is advisable that a Sanitary Board Engineer be appointed, as provided by section 4 (b) of the Sanitary Boards Enactment.
- That this Engineer should also take control of the Waterworks and should be an officer of the Board.
- That the votes which now appear in the Public Works Department Estimates for maintenance of roads, Waterworks Special Service votes for Sanitary Board Works and Buildings be transferred to the Sanitary Board.

Mr. Graham-Brown points out that the reply to delays in carrying out work for the Board has usually been that it is due to shortage of staff and consider that, in view of the financial return already considered, the Board might fairly ask to have its own Engineer who could relieve the Executive Engineer of all Sanitary Board works and road maintenance in the town area, and also of the Waterworks.

The Executive Engineer points out that in 1921 there was one Engineer in sole charge of the Coast Water Supply, making three in the district; now there are two only, and that with this staff it will be scarcely possible to spend all the money inserted in the Draft Estimate for 1926. The Board decides to adopt Mr. Graham-Brown's resolution and forward them to the Resident.

5. Control of attap houses along Port Swettenham Road: The Board agrees that this road will have to be widened in the near future and decides to ask the Town Planning Committee to fix a definite building line on either side of the road within which no attap houses will be allowed to re-attap. Fifty feet from the centre of the road is suggested and all occupiers of attap houses within the line to be notified.

6. Sanitary Board boundary, Klang and Port Swettenham: It is decided to rescind the previous resolution of the Board in favour of fixing the contiguous boundary at the 3rd mile-stone to make the boundary at the Pendamaran Road junction.

7. Application to treat rubber at 320, Jalan Raia: The Board decides to refuse a licence to treat rubber in this locality but has no objection to a licence to store rubber.

8. Proposed site for match factory in Harper Street is approved by the Board.

9. Plans to erect two smoke-houses on lot 991, section 24, on Beverlac Estate are approved.

10. Site for Chinese Maternity Hospital is approved.

11. The Board decides to name that portion of the road named Malay Street in the survey maps between the level crossing and the Police Station, Klang, as Jalan Raja.

12. The Board decides to insist on the installation of septic tanks to all new bungalows over $2,000 in value and gradually to extend this principle to existing bungalows.

13. Petition from residents of Guan Hup Street complaining of the nuisance from hired motor cars is read. Dr. Young strongly urges that the stand be removed owing to the danger to the large number of children living in this street. The Board decides to defer action till the next meeting, so that a suitable place can be allotted for a hired car stand. The lane behind section , Rembau Street, is suggested.

14. The Chairman informs the members that a large number of private lands are not being properly maintained under by-law 192, incidentally mentioning that every acre of State land is upkept by the Sanitary Board. The Board decides to enforce the by-law to clean and maintain lands by public notification and notices in the towns, kampongs and Government offices. It is decided to refer to the Legal Adviser for an expression of opinion on the by-law and enquire if prosecutions may be instituted for non-maintenance without previously issuing a notice.

15. New by-law to license the storage and treatment of raw rubber within Sanitary Board areas is passed by formal resolution of the Board. The members are of opinion that the by-law is redundant inasmuch as by-law 202 (m) already provides for licences for trades from which unwholesome or offensive smells arise.

The Board asks for a definition of the term "Raw Rubber" to be included in the by-law as under the Supervision of Rubber Enactment this means latex and the by-law is clearly not intended to apply to latex only.

16. It is decided to give the conservancy buckets manufactured by the Gaol at Taiping a trial.

17. Dr. Young, addressing the Chairman, said that as this was probably the last meeting presided by him in his present capacity, he wished to say on behalf of the unofficial members how very much they appreciated serving on this Board under his regime. He had always given them the utmost consideration and support in any proposal that they had put forward and they felt it was largely due to his keenness and energy that this Board was able to show such satisfactory progress and results during his term of office, and that they wished him a very pleasant holiday.

NOTIFICATIONS REPEATED.

No. 6465.—EXAMINATION OF CHINESE INTERPRETERS.—

The Secretary for Chinese Affairs, Federated Malay States, will hold an examination under the Scheme for Chinese Interpreters of 1921 at the Chinese Secretariat, Kuala Lumpur, on the 1st of December, 1925, and subsequent days.

Any Interpreter wishing to present himself for examination for extra qualifications must forward to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, Federated Malay States, through the Head of his Department, an application to that effect accompanied by a copy of statement of his service and (unless he is a Certificated Interpreter) a copy of any certificate held by him.

No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination for more than one pensionable increase at the same time.

Applications should reach the Secretary for Chinese Affairs by November 24th, 1925.

Heads of Departments when forwarding such applications are requested to report upon the work of the applicant.

In order to avoid Interpreters wasting unnecessary time in Kuala Lumpur, applicants will be notified on which day they should present themselves for examination.

In places distant from Kuala Lumpur or where access is difficult, as in the case of Kuantan and Pekan, applicants should state the day or days of the week which are best suited to enable them to return to their appointments with as little delay as possible.

Certificated Interpreters who have reached the salary of $1,800 per annum will be required to present themselves for re-examination before the Certificates of Efficiency prescribed by section 8 of the New Certificated Interpreters' Scheme will be granted.

W. T. CHAPMAN,
Secretary for Chinese Affairs, F.M.S.

No. 2730.—PUBLIC OFFICERS' GUARANTEE FUND.—NOTICE.—There are unclaimed balances in the Public Officers' Guarantee Fund standing to the credit of officers who have died, resigned or ceased to contribute, payment of which will be made on claims being satisfactorily established.

Any further information can be obtained from the Secretary, Public Officers' Guarantee Fund, Kuala Lumpur, to whom also all claims for refund should be addressed.

The contractor will be held responsible for any goods damaged while being handled by his employees.

The contractor must at all times provide a sufficient number of men to load and unload all goods, merchandise and live stock received by the Railway Department for carriage, and he and his employees must implicitly obey all orders issued by the Traffic Manager for his guidance and for the proper working of the traffic. Should it become necessary to load and unload at night, the contractor must do so without extra charge.

The contract will be for an indefinite period from the 1st December, 1925, and terminable by 60 days' notice on either side. Payments will be made monthly.

The contractor must provide security, if so required by the Traffic Manager, for the satisfactory completion of the contract.

Persons tendering for this contract are to clearly understand that in the event of their securing the work, under no circumstances will consideration be given to applications for increased payments during the period of the contract.

Free passes or free transport by rail will not be allowed.

The contractor must reside at the more important of a group of stations or at the station he contracts for.

If quarters are provided by the Railway Department or in the event of the contractor putting up his own building on railway land, the contractor will be called upon to pay rent for occupation of such quarters or land.

The terms of contract may be seen at the office of the Traffic Manager, Kuala Lumpur, during office hours.

Sealed tenders, endorsed "Tender for Loading and Unloading, Federated Malay States Railways, at Mambau, Kuala Sawah, Siliau, Sirusa and Port Dickson Stations," will be received at the office of the General Manager, Federated Malay States Railways, Kuala Lumpur, up till noon of the 18th November, 1925.

The full name and address of the person tendering for the contract must be clearly shown.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, S.S., F.M.S.

GOVERNMENT EXPERIMENTAL PLANTATION, SERDANG.

Planters and others interested in agriculture are hereby notified that a large scale experimental plantation exists at Serdang in the State of Selangor, F.M.S.

This plantation is situated about 14 miles by road from Kuala Lumpur and $5\frac{1}{2}$ from Sungei Besi Railway Station. It has been started with the object of carrying out experiments with crops other than rubber and coconuts, and at the present time over 100 different crops are under cultivation on either a large or small scale according to their agricultural importance.

In order that the public may become acquainted with the experimental work which is being carried out on the plantation the third Wednesday in each month has been fixed as a "Visitors' Day" when members of the staff will be detailed to show any persons interested in agricultural matters over the plantation and its extensive nurseries.

In certain cases special visits other than on visitors' day may be arranged on application to the Secretary for Agriculture, S.S. and F.M.S., Kuala Lumpur, or to the Agriculturist, Government Plantations, F.M.S., Kuala Lumpur, but in order not to interfere with the work of the staff such visits will necessarily have to be limited, and the public are requested to make use of the fixed visiting days as far as possible.

A hostel on the plantation provides a limited amount of accommodation and, in special cases, arrangements can be made to accommodate visitors on application to the Assistant Agriculturist, Experimental Plantation, Serdang, Sungei Besi P.O. (Telephone No. 4, Kuala Lumpur Exchange.)

VISITORS' DAY

ON THE

THIRD WEDNESDAY IN EACH MONTH

AT 8.30 A.M.

AT THE EXPERIMENTAL PLANTATION, SERDANG.

Persons travelling by train should alight at Sungei Besi where hire cars and rickshaws are available for transport to the plantation, which is roughly $5\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the railway station.

STANDARD MODEL No. 12.

The "Imperial"
 is fitted with typically British characters—not found on foreign typewriters—96 in all, 12
 more than usual.
 Visible writing on which the light is thrown whatever the position of the machine.
 Typing to the extreme top or bottom of the paper or card used.
 Unfailing regularity in the spacing and alignment of the writing.

The "Imperial"
 Typewriter is now becoming known as the most up-to-date and convenient machine on the market; the construction of this machine is extremely simple, having fewer parts to get out of order than almost any other. It is very strong and yet not bulky.

These three illustrations show the simple method of removing the Type Units. (Vide Instruction Book.)
